

My session with Anita took place over the phone where I found her to be warm, friendly, honest and a pleasure to talk to.

From her descriptions it was clear she was receiving messages for me from certain relatives who have passed. Her ability to convey their messages is fascinating and amazing, I found it an incredible experience.

I would have another session with Anita in a heartbeat.

— Jeb Cardwell