Immigrant visa applicants in some countries use a Department of State online application center to submit required fees, forms, and documents to the National Visa Center (NVC) for review.
This tool is called the Consular Electronic Application Center, or CEAC.
It's secure, easy to use, and faster than the traditional mail-in application process. Using CEAC gives immigrant visa applicants: ALL / ALL / Your application information on CEAC is secure. Use your unique case number and invoice ID number to log into CEAC. Only share these numbers with people you trust. ALL / ALL / CEAC allows you to see what's going on with your case at any time. Unsure if you're supposed to be doing something? Log into CEAC and check! ALL / ALL / NVC will post messages in CEAC each time there is a change to the status of your case. You'll get detailed feedback right next to your submitted documents so you know what to do next. denotation_and_connotation_lesson_23_answers.pdf It's a faster and more eco-friendly way to ensure you are always up-to-date. Using CEAC is simple. To access your case online, use the unique case number and invoice ID number that NVC sends you. After you log in, you will see a summary of your case that includes the status of each visa applicant and financial sponsor associated with your case. The status chart will tell you what steps you need to take. The three main things you need to do are: 1) pay your fees, 2) complete the online visa application form, and 3) upload required documents that you scanned and saved to your computer. Unless specifically instructed to do so, you do not have to send NVC anything in the mail. Instructions and updates from NVC will be posted in your CEAC account.
You can also use CEAC to update your email address; add or delete traveling family members; and add financial sponsors. Next steps Follow the steps carefully on nvc.state.gov for completing your case. The first step in this processing is the creation of your case in our system. Once this is complete, we will send you a Welcome Letter by e-mail or physical mail. With the information in this letter, you can log in to our Consular Electronic Application Center (CEAC) to check your status, receive messages, and manage your case.   Once you submit your fees, forms, and supporting documents to NVC, we will review your case to ensure you provided all the documentation required to schedule the immigrant visa interview. Interviews are based on the availability of appointments offered at the Embassy/Consulate.

To determine which cases NVC is currently reviewing, please refer to the NVC Timeframes page on the right navigation bar. Page 2 Step 3: Pay Fees The first thing you need to do after receiving your NVC Welcome Letter is pay your processing fees. There are two processing fees: Immigrant Visa Application Processing Fee Affidavit of Support Fee.
You will need a bank routing number and a checking or savings account number from a U.S. based bank. To pay your fee, log into your case in CEAC and click the 'PAY NOW' button under Affidavit of Support Fee or IV Fee on your summary page. Please note you cannot pay these two fees simultaneously; the online system will ask you to pay them one at a time. After submitting your payments online, please allow up to 1 week for NVC to process your fees before continuing to the next step. You will not be able to access Form DS-260 until NVC has processed your payments.
