Presidents Message

Greetings to all of our Moose Hayward Castro Valley members and those who may come upon this message in reading whether you are a current member or not. As the year end holidays approach closer by the day, I wish you all good tidings. Our lodge home will always be in need of your time and efforts, but in this season may we all seek to expand our volunteerism and generosity beyond as well. Wherever or however you partake in the season of giving I applaud you. I give you each and everyone who puts forth their efforts to the betterment of others in need my appreciation. Always bear in mind most everyone working in our social quarters does so as a volunteer at all times putting their effort in to give you and I a nice place to enjoy day in and day out. Every volunteer in house deserves your appreciations and respect as much as my own. Remember always, if they weren't there doing what they do we'd probably lock the doors more often with a closed sign greeting you instead of a smile and a kind word. Until next time, with a new year coming upon the horizon I leave you with gratitude.
Thank you, Anthony Soares

Administrators Message

Can you believe the holidays are already here? I am super excited for the holiday season. We have a lot of fun things coming up here at the Moose Lodge. We just had an amazing Trunk or Treat event for the kids for Halloween. We had some great cars and had fun seeing all the kiddos in their costumes. In November we have our 3rd annual Friendsgiving Potluck on November 16th, and we can't wait. I love trying everyone's special dishes. So, bring a dish to share and wear your stretching pants and enjoy good food and good friendship. December 16th will be our kids Christmas Party at the lodge. Keep an eye out for the sign-up sheet to come soon. The sign-up sheet is in the social quarters on the bulletin board. In December we have the Tom and Jerry Party on December 21st. This is also a Potluck event but this one is "spiked". Everyone who brings a dish to share will be able to indulge in our Hot Toddie, Hot Buttered Rum and Spiked Eggnog or Hot Chocolate served by some of our amazing guys. We will also have non-alcohol versions of some of the above drinks available. Signup will be out after Friendsgiving has been completed. With the holiday season coming, the board of officers were feeling in the giving mood, so we are having the following membership specials for November and December.
