

A Letter to Our Customers Regarding Covid-19

At G.F. Lasswell Co., Inc., we understand that there are many uncertainties during this time concerning the COVID-19 (Coronavirus) outbreak, and our hearts go out to everyone around the world being impacted by this current pandemic.

As we navigate through this unprecedented and uncertain time, G. F. Lasswell Co., Inc. has aligned it's business operations and employee procedures to meet or exceed the restrictions set by local and federal agencies regarding social distancing, work-at-home, or shelter in place orders and will continue our compliance as we navigate through the COVID-19 pandemic.

G. F. Lasswell Co., Inc. is considered an essential business per the state of Texas and U.S. Government guidelines, and as a manufacturer's redistributor, we are open for business and continue to meet the needs of our partners. Our staff is in daily contact with our manufacturers and suppliers and monitoring the supply chain to make adjustments accordingly.

We continue to remain vigilant in monitoring updates from public health officials and government agencies so that we can make ongoing assessments quickly.
