

SPONSORSHIP PROPOSAL

WHO WE ARE?

The San Diego Environmental Film Festival (SDEFF) is a registered tax-exempt 501c3 nonprofit started in 2022 by five women in conservation. Based in San Diego County, ancestral homeland of the Kumeyaay people.

WHAT WE DO?

The San Diego Environmental Film festival is dedicated to creating a space for films focused on the the environment, whether the stories are told through air, land, water, or people.

We hope to bring together diverse audiences and filmmakers for an artistic, educational experience that inspires action and positive impact locally and globally.

FESTIVAL LAUNCH

The 2nd annual San Diego Film Festival will be held on November 17-18, 2023

Opening night will take place Friday, November 17th at Digital Gym Cinema in Downtown San Diego followed by all-day film screenings on Saturday, November 18th at Suraj Israni Center for Cinematic Arts, UC San Diego.

PROGRAMMING

Focused on showcasing films on the environment, sustainability, climate, conservation, and biodiversity of our planet. The event will also feature a filmmaker panel, workshops, tabling by local organizations, and prizes for the category winners.
