

SPONSORSHIP PROPOSAL

WHO WE ARE?

The San Diego Environmental Film Festival (SDEFF) is a registered 501c3 nonprofit started in 2022 by four women in conservation. Based in San Diego County, ancestral homeland of the Kumeyaay people.

WHAT WE DO?

The San Diego Environmental Film festival is dedicated to creating a space for films focused on the the environment, whether the stories are told through air, land, water, or people.

We hope to bring together diverse audiences and filmmakers for an artistic, educational experience that inspires action and positive impact locally and globally.

FESTIVAL LAUNCH

The first annual San Diego Film Festival will be an all-day event held on Saturday, November 19 in San Diego, CA.

PROGRAMMING

Focused on showcasing films on the environment, sustainability, climate, conservation, and biodiversity of our planet. The event will also feature a filmmaker panel, workshops, tabling by local organizations, and prizes for the category winners.
