

Pinpoint your next venue with ease

Located is a global hotel site selection company — founded on a principal belief that securing the best location can be done swiftly, with ease and efficiency.

Our approach to locating and securing the perfect venue saves you time, money, and effort. We've streamlined the process from sourcing to contract execution. And, with experience servicing a widely diverse client base, we know how to secure contract terms that mitigate financial liabilities and risk.

Saving you time

Time is of the essence. So, securing a location is a critical first step.

With our extensive know-how, broad professional network, and persistent scouting of venues across the globe, you'll save precious time and effort to pinpoint a location and secure it under favorable contract terms.

Saving you money

Having decades of combined experience in sourcing and procurement, we know how to find the best venues that suit your program needs and budget.

Our site selection services are offered at no cost to you — and without a service-fee contract to sign.

Saving you effort

Traditionally, site selection efforts required lots of back-and-forth phone calls, emails, and the manual effort of wrangling documents. We've changed that!

Our Program Management Platform is intuitive and purposeful, providing an efficient way to ease through the process with pace.

How we get it done

START SMART

Understand scope and success of past programs, and establish program objectives and related requirements; then, leverage Located's industry resources to identify best venue options.

SOURCE STRATEGICALLY

Develop, submit and manage RFP process with all potential venues, in real-time; compile responses and provide expert guidance to help narrow down top choices.

NEGOTIATE SKILLFULLY

Engage top-chosen venues in negotiations, while securing contract terms that mitigate financial liabilities and risk.

EXECUTE SUCCESSFULLY

Facilitate the contract signing process, and construct schedule of venue-related tasks and deadlines through our PMP platform.

Located's Program Management Platform

Through the PMP, our clients have access to the latest information and documents at any time and from anywhere. Equally helpful, our PMP facilitates multi-party collaboration in real time, with easy-to-use browser, desktop, and mobile apps.

Ensuring your success is what makes us successful

Located serves as an extension of your team — quickly understanding your program and its goals.

We work on your behalf to ask the hard questions and get everything answered — providing the decision-making information you need and the exceptional service you deserve.

It's a commitment we make to earn your continued business, one program at a time.

What our clients and partners have to say
