Quick Word from us!

Building relationships is a key element of operations. We have been fortunate to have an amazing teacher in Adelaide offer her teaching expertise to teach reading to a group of children in our Korogocho school.

Partnerships are also essential for Aaliyah to build upon the work she is doing to eradicate period poverty and a newly formed partnership between In2EdAfrica and Natures Lock has provided nutritious meals for the children in our schools.

ONLINE READING LESSONS

One of the key objectives of In2EdAfrica is to close the digital divide. We have been piloting modes of doing this in simple and effective ways. We have been fortunate to have teachers in Australia engage with our students in Korogocho with the use of mobile phones and a book. Sometimes it is the simple things that have the most impact. This is a program we plan to expand and grow.

SPREADING THE WORD

Aaliyah has been very fortunate to have the support of her school. She has spoken in front of 200 students on the topic of social enterprise, period poverty and entrepreneurship.

Lunch Partnership

Partnering with this organization has meant our children are now provided with a meal every day for lunch. Many children only eat a meal at school and we are so grateful for this partnership.
