Bell Research Laboratory Code Validation Criteria

To validate a theological belief, all aspects of the belief must pass a three-level consistency check.

Each validation stages' inputs and findings are checked for associations and /or relationship inconsistencies with the following sources:

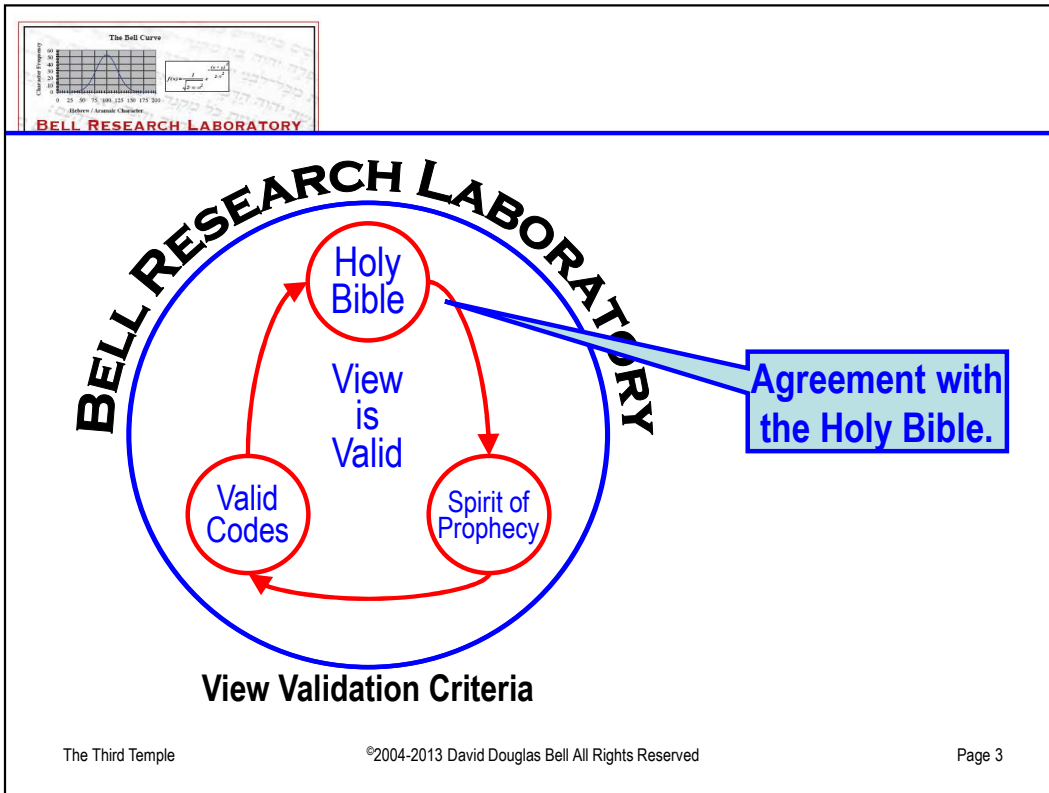

1. The Holy Bible
2. The Spirit of Prophecy (Ellen G. White's prophetic writings, etc.)
3. Valid Bible code matrices

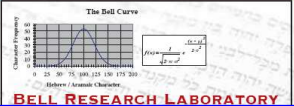

If all three criteria are met, without violation, the theological belief is considered valid and adopted as present truth.

Bible Commentary on The Third Temple

"Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy." Daniel 9:24 (KJV) (The Seventy week prophecy. Many say that this has been fulfilled; but is that logical? Has sin been done away with (not a partially fulfilled plan...), has everlasting righteousness been brought in, has the Most High been anointed (reference to the second coming)? Does the pen of inspiration provide additional insight into this?)

"And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be [at the end of time] with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined." Daniel 9:26 (KJV) (The prophecy at this point moves to the future. We know this because the text talks about a prince that will (future) come.)

"And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate." Daniel 9:27 (KJV) (The prince of the world (Satan) will put an end to the re-established animal sacrifices, in the middle of the last week (3.5 yrs), in the third temple.)

Something that is interesting is that Daniel describes the location of the headquarters of the false leader when he has his end or destruction.

"And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him."
Daniel 11:45 (KJV) (The word used for "seas" (ים) Strong's Number 03220) means the Mediterranean Sea.)

Sister White's Comments on The Third Temple

"'The time is fulfilled, the kingdom of God is at hand,' had been their message. At the expiration of 'the time'—the sixty-nine weeks of Daniel 9, which were to extend to the Messiah, 'the Anointed One'—Christ had received the anointing of the Spirit, after his baptism by John in Jordan... As used in the Bible, the expression 'kingdom of God' is employed to designate both the kingdom of grace and the kingdom of glory."[emphasis added]--
The Great Controversy, (1888), pages 346 and 347.

"Papists who boast of miracles as a certain mark of the true church, will be readily deceived by this wonder-working power; and Protestants, having cast away the shield of truth, will also be deluded. Papists, Protestants, and worldlings will alike accept the form of godliness without the power, and they will see in this union a grand movement for the conversion of the world, and the ushering in of the long-expected millennium.

Through Spiritualism, Satan appears as a benefactor of the race, healing the diseases of the people, and professing to present a new and more exalted system of religious faith; but at the same time he works as a destroyer. His temptations are leading multitudes to ruin." [emphasis added]—The Spirit of Prophecy Volume Four, (1884), page 406.

Remember that the realization of this is not bad news for the saints. The return of our Lord and savior Jesus Christ is soon to transpire and we are reaching yet another undeniable step in the progression towards the glorious end of the conflict of the ages. As the prophet Isaiah describes above, we are to keep our vessels pure, and we will be filled with the Holy Spirit.

This code reveals that the prophetic (STR) information is for, and is fulfilled during, the last generation on earth before the second coming.

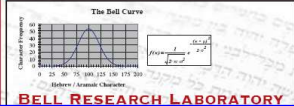

NOTE: Found in the Aramaic NT and using the Hebrew spelling of "Man of Sin".

The [RED] STR codes reveal:

- 1) The prophecy begins with this timing statement. When the people of earth are deceived by the lie, ("10And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. 11And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: 12That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness." 2 Thessalonians 2:10-12 (KJV))
- 2) this is the final generation.
- 3) And the Lord said
- 4) the Holy Spirit will teach the saints.

...He retook the Likud leadership on 20 December 2005. In the 2006 election, Likud did poorly, winning twelve seats. In December 2006, Netanyahu became the official Opposition Leader in the Knesset and Chairman of the Likud Party. In August 2007, he retained the Likud leadership by beating Moshe Feiglin in party elections. Following the 10 February 2009 parliamentary election, in which Likud placed second and right-wing parties won a majority, Netanyahu formed a coalition government. Bible code discovered by Jimmie Cash.

The ark of the covenant is most likely in the ancient city of Thebes (Egypt):

"Archaeology has confirmed that Sheshonk I (c. 945-924 BC) is the "Shishak" of the Old Testament (I Kings 14:25-28; II Chronicles 12:2-12). At ancient Thebes on the south eastern bank of the Nile, there exists on a wall in a partially ruined Karnak Temple, a relief which tells the story of Sheshonk's raid on Palestine. He is the first Pharaoh mentioned by name in the Old Testament. Pharaoh was believed, by the Egyptians, to be god on earth, the physical presence of Amen-Ra and Horus (deities of the sun). Sheshonk I was a Libyan prince by descent, and his Libyan successors were to rule Egypt for over two centuries.

Solomon, King of the Jews had died, and with him the unity of Israel. The Jewish nation split into two Kingdoms. Ten of the original twelve tribes of Israel, formed a new government in northern Palestine, becoming the new nation of Israel, which made a new secret alliance with one of the super powers of the day, the Egyptians. In the south, the remaining two tribes, Judah and Benjamin, became the nation of Judah under Rehoboam, King Solomon's son. No longer was Egypt ruled from Thebes in the south or from Memphis in the Delta. This new Pharaoh, Sheshonk, ruled from Tanis in the northern Egyptian Delta. It was here that he amassed his army and prepared, in C. 925, to attack Rehoboam's tiny Kingdom of Judah. For days the soldiers of the 22nd dynasty poured into the Delta. Standards of red, blue, green or white in the shape of fans, ostrich feathers, solar boats, Egyptian gods, lotus and papyrus plants were carried at the lead of charioteers, archers, spearmen and swordsmen. Surrounding the commander and chief, were standards with two magical oval shaped designs (the cartouches) containing, in the finest hieroglyphic hand, the names of his majesty, King of Kings, Bull of Bulls, the god-man, sent from Amen-Ra himself, Sheshonk the First, founder of the 22nd Egyptian Dynasty. Seeing that the time was right, a serious weakening of the Israelite tribes by division of the Monarchy and noting the situation was further accentuated by the exhausting wars between the separate Israeli Kingdoms, Sheshonk launched a full scale invasion in the fifth year of Rehoboam.

Pharaoh's well oiled fighting machine moved into southern Judah, grinding up each city in its path as it closed in on Sheshonk's main prey - Jerusalem! Winding their way through the Judean hills, watchmen on the northeastern Jerusalem walls could see in the distance a huge cloud of dust rising from the wheels of 1,200 chariots, followed by 6,000 horseman and by an infantry so large the Bible describes it as "people without number who came with him out of Egypt--the Lubim (Lybia) and the Sukkiim and the Ethiopians. (II Chronicles 12:3). In a matter of hours the Egyptians hit Jerusalem from the north. After a severe struggle, the Egyptians army scaled the Jerusalem walls, ransacked the Temple of God, and plundered King Solomon's palace. Then as quickly as they had come, Sheshonk's troops departed the Holy City carrying the campaign northward through Judah, even into the border regions of Israel, home of the Ten Tribes.

Why had Sheshonk I waged such a desperate campaign against Israel, a nation with which Egypt has secret alliance? Pharaoh had desperate need of financial backing. For years, he had heard stories of the tremendous wealth of Solomon and great wealth amassed in the Temple treasury. History has recorded that in just one raid on Jerusalem, Sheshonk stole enough gold and silver from the palace of Solomon and the Temple which Solomon constructed, to finance his twenty-second Egyptian dynasty for two hundred years!

Now the question that many archaeologists, treasure-seekers, researchers, and Hollywood screen writers, have tried to answer is: Since Sheshonk stole the gold shields of Solomon, the wealth of Solomon's palace and the accumulated wealth of Solomon's Temple, did he steal the Golden Ark of God too?

I believe the answer is to be found in archaeological and historical records. Let us note two facts--one, is the excavation of the tomb of Sheshonk I. The second is that history verifies the sacred objects of the Temple such as the Golden Table of Shewbread, the Golden Menorah, and the Golden Altar of Incense, were somehow overlooked by Pharaoh and his men.

In 1938-39, archaeologists were heavily at work at Tanis, headquarters of Sheshonk I, founder of the 22nd Dynasty. It is at Tanis that the only other intact royal burials have been found. Geography had, like at Thebes, affected the type of tombs excavated at Tanis. The land area is low and the water table very high. Shallow land excavation work in the Delta will always produce water without digging down very far. This condition forced ancient Egyptian tomb architects and builders of the 21st and 22nd Dynasties to construct burial places for the Royal dead above ground in simple stone structures. Modern archaeologist call this type of tomb a MASTABA. A "mastaba" was a rectangular structure with slightly sloping walls. The super structure was originally solid over an underground burial chamber - in later times it was honeycombed with highly decorated rooms. Often people imagine Egyptian Pharaohs buried beneath great pyramids - this is an erroneous misconception. It must be remembered that King Tut was buried beneath a mastaba tomb structure.

During the late 1930's and early 1940's, the Royal tombs of Tanis were uncovered. The walls of Sheshonk's mastaba was in places some 58 1/2 feet thick and constructed of mud brick. In this rare find was Sheshonk I, along with several other mummies, including the mummy of a son of Sheshonk I, the noble Prince Hamakht. Their coffins were of solid silver, some falcon headed, other human-headed. Remember, silver at this time was still more precious than gold. There were fine gold and silver vessels, solid gold collars, a marvelous collection of jewelry: bracelets, ear rings, pectorals, girdles, and amulets. Then in the style of King Tutankhamen, Sheshonk I was outfitted with a solid mask of gold! But it is to be noted: there was no sign of Solomon's Ark of God!

Another powerful fact that gives witness against Sheshonk I removing the Ark as well as the other fantastic treasures from the Holy Place and the Holy of Holies in the Jerusalem Temple is the inscription of Sheshonk carved on the walls of the Temple of Amen-Ra at Karnak (ancient Thebes). It is a well known fact that the Egyptian Pharaohs were incredible braggars, liars and communicators of the greatest fish stories of all time! If they lost a battle, somehow it was never told exactly like that. Any information that related defeat was somehow reinterpreted to give the reader the impression of victory. If the Egyptians had truly taken the Ark back to Tanis as some want to believe or any of the other great trophies of the Hebrew Temple were removed, Sheshonk's PR agent would have blasted the story all over the walls of the Karnak Temple in the most glamorous hieroglyphic verbiage the priests of Amen could have imagined. If the Ark of the Covenant had been taken by the Egyptians, this triumph would have been attributed to the god Amen-Ra and its theft would most certainly have been given coverage in this most climactic defeat over the Hebrew people and their God, Jehovah!

So, the treasure hunt goes on. Where is the lost Ark?

Al-Aqsa Mosque (Arabic: المسجد الأقصى al-Masjid al-Aqṣā, IPA: "the Farthest Mosque") also known as Al-Aqsa and Bayt al-Muqaddas, is the third holiest site in Islam and is located in the Old City of Jerusalem. The site on which the silver domed mosque sits, along with the Dome of the Rock, also referred to as al-Haram ash-Sharif or "Noble Sanctuary,"^[2] is the Temple Mount, the holiest site in Judaism, the place where the Temple is generally accepted to have stood. Muslims believe that Muhammad was transported from the Sacred Mosque in Mecca to al-Aqsa during the Night Journey. Islamic tradition holds that Muhammad led prayers towards this site until the seventeenth month after the emigration, when God directed him to turn towards the Ka'aba.

^[2] Schieck, Robert (2008) in Geographical Dimension of Islamic Jerusalem, Cambridge Scholars Publishing; see also Omar, Abdallah (2009) al-Madkhal li-dirasat al-Masjid al-Aqsa al-Mubarak, Beirut: Dar al-Kotob al-Ilmiyaah; also by the same author the Atlas of Al-Aqsa Mosque (2010).

"The desolation", as it is spelled in Daniel (in Aramean), is found only once exactly crossing the expression "upon my Temple" !!! Daniel 9:27, 11:31, 12:11 also Matthew 24:15 and Mark 13:14

The [RED] STR codes reveal:

- 1) A blessing is pronounced upon those that keep the testimonies of the prophets in the Holy book.
- 2) It will come to pass that when the people humble themselves and repent,
- 3) that the Holy Spirit will help them wash and clean their garments.
- 4) The world churches and leaders will come together in unity during the setting up of the image that will be made to the anti-Christ beast power. ("The Catholics will give their power to the image of the beast. And the Protestants will work as their mother worked before them to destroy the saints."-Spalding and Magan Collection (1985), page 2. "When the leading churches of the United States, uniting upon such points of doctrine as are held by them in common, shall influence the state to enforce their decrees and to sustain their institutions, then Protestant America will have formed an image of the Roman hierarchy, and the infliction of evil penalties upon dissenters will inevitably result."-The Great Controversy, page 445)

- 5) The command from God is given to give the warning of destruction. ("Our land is in jeopardy. The time is drawing on when its legislators shall so abjure the principles of Protestantism as to give countenance to Romish apostasy. The people for whom God has so marvelously wrought, strengthening them to throw off the galling yoke of popery, will by a national act give vigor to the corrupt faith of Rome, and thus arouse the tyranny which only waits for a touch to start again into cruelty and despotism. With rapid steps are we already approaching this period. When Protestant churches shall seek the support of the secular power, thus following the example of that apostate church, for opposing which their ancestors endured the fiercest persecution, then will there be a national apostasy which will end only in national ruin."-The Spirit of Prophecy Volume Four, 1884, page 410)
- 6) The men of war that will be with him (not the unwashed masses...),
- 7) had cities built for their defense. (Secret underground bunkers...)
- 8) All (almost) the world will worship the beast power.
- 9) God's people left the cities as commanded and gathered together in groups.

12) "And the rest of the acts...behold, they are written in the book ..." 2 Kings 15:11 (KJV)

The Bell Curve

Pre-Study Prayer:

Dear heavenly Father;
we humbly come to you once again to ask for your Holy Spirit to be sent upon us; to provide divine understanding of the messages that have been placed with incalculable effort within your Holy text for us to discover at this point in earth's history. I pray that this knowledge will clarify the path that you, and your heavenly angels, are placing before us to accomplish the goals that are needed in preparation for the eternal kingdom. I pray that this knowledge will also allow us to go forth and participate and know with confidence that we are part of the cure and not a part of the disease. In the name of Jesus Christ, our Lord and savior, we pray these things...Amen!

Newly Translated Hebrew Text Reveals the Fate of the Ark of the Covenant
