Please read the following statements and sign below:

Collector agrees to collect, freeze and store canine semen from the above dog. The frozen semen will be available to the semen owner(s) for use/shipping following standard procedures, instructions to be supplied to the semen owner after the semen is stored. Payment for freezing semen is due at the time of collection. Storage fees are waived at time of collection until the following January. Storage fee is $100 annually for up to 100 straws owned by semen owner named above. Annual storage fees are not prorated; a 30 day grace period from bill date will be given for shipments of all semen, disposals and transfer of ownerships.

Payments are due within 30 days of billing. Late payment will result in $5.00 late fee per month. After 180 days (6 months) of non-payment, the frozen semen ownership will transfer to the Collector and be subject to selling or disposal at their discretion.

Accounts must be current in order for frozen semen to be released. It is the Semen Owners responsibility to ensure the account remains current with collector. Any change of address, phone number or semen ownership transfers needs to be provided to the Collector immediately.

There are additional fees charged by Collector when the stored semen is shipped for breeding or transfer. These fees are usually termed shipping preparation, shipping tank rental, and actual shipping charges to ship the semen to its destination and for return of shipping tank. Deposits are required on all shipping tanks and refunded once they are returned.

Sperm cells will eventually cease living, but no one knows or can predict when this will occur, and it can vary from dog to dog. Collector shall not be held liable for, and cannot guarantee conception from, frozen canine semen. Nor can Collector guarantee that the frozen sperm cells will be viable at the time of thawing for insemination.

In the event of loss or damage of frozen semen due to natural causes due to weather, fire, storage/shipping tank failure, or shipping tank accident/damage, Collector would not be held liable for the loss or the replacement value of the frozen semen.
