

Sub Sea Load Shackle Supply Example

Euroload Limited can supply any size load shackle to operate subsea. We have recently supplied a 500 tonnes shackle with the below spec, 500 tonnes subsea load monitoring shackle, Van Beest P-6036 bow, rated to 300 bar, dual strain gauged, dual 4-20 ma output, output via Subconn subsea connector, 200 meter subsea cable c/w Subconn connectors mounted on heavy duty cable reel, spare 200 meter cable c/w heavy duty cable reel, ELC-01 battery operated handset (back up).

Fully stainless steel indicator panel housing datatrack 224 digital indicator c/w analogue output, alarm relays, IP67 viewing window, RS 485 output, universal mains input.

T24 telemetry output from panel optional. Can transmit load signal up to 800 meters away. On this job we supplied a laptop c/w T24 USB receiver to log all results up to 800 meters away and a battery operated T24-HS handset which also can read the displayed value up to 800 meters away.

Our T24 Made To Measure brochure explains the capability's of the T24 range of telemetry electronics.

For outstanding quality and service please contact our sales team or local agent.