

ABOUT THE FOUNDER ONASSIS JEEVARAJ

Onassis Jeevaraj is a seasoned prayer mobilizer and visionary leader with over two decades of experience catalyzing intercessory movements across nations.

He is the founder of Nehemiah Missions & Saath Chalo and plays an active role in global networks like International Prayer Connect and other Global Prayer Initiatives.

From 1995–2005, Onassis served as an associate pastor, combining pastoral care with a passion for citywide transformation. As an entrepreneur, he has also advanced Kingdom principles in the marketplace.

He initiated “Children in Prayer” programs and co-founded the South Asia Prayer Council with reps from 7 countries. He has travelled to over 40 nations, imparting a deep missionary burden and inspiring revival prayer.

“Driven by a deep conviction in the power of collective prayer, Onassis continues to network, equip, and mobilize like-minded influencers to see spiritual and societal transformation across the nations.”

Mobilizing Prayer

Igniting Transformation

Advancing the Gospel

“Revive Your Church. Transform Your City.”

OUR IMPACT

TRANSFORMING CITIES THROUGH COLLECTIVE PRAYER

- Uniting Churches
- Raising Intercessors
- Encouraging Revival in Communities

ABOUT NEHEMIAH MISSIONS

WHO WE ARE

Nehemiah Missions is serving as a conduit to mobilize deliberate leadership and impact transformation in order to make the Churches vibrant.

It intentionally takes up crucial issues and mobilizes Churches regularly to pray and initiate meaningful intervention in their respective cities.

Nehemiah Missions integrates both the Great Commission and the Great Commandment in all its approaches.

We establish and support 24/7 Prayer Altars and Houses of Prayer in every district, town, and city across the nations.

It collaborates with leaders of Churches and Christian organizations periodically to understand trends and develop effective measures for revival and transformation.
