INTERIOR DESIGN

THOUGHTFULLY CONSIDERED DESIGN

Creating happy homes for many.

HISTORIC CHARACTER. MODERN LIVING. THOUGHTFUL USE OF SPACE.

BANK HOUSE, PONTEFRAC

DESIGN WITH PURPOSE

THE CRAP PRINCIPLE

Every design choice at Bank House has been guided by the CRAP principle – a simple framework to create homes that feel right and perform beautifully.

CONTEXT

We honour the building's heritage, using colours, materials and details that reflect its story and setting.

RELEVANCE

Homes are designed for modern living – layouts, storage and finishes tailored to how people live today.

AUTHENTICITY

Honest materials, quality craftsmanship and timeless elements ensure spaces feel genuine and lasting.

PURPOSE

Every detail has a reason. From lighting to storage, nothing is added unless it enhances the experience of home.

“Thoughtful Design”

Every decision at Bank House has been made with intention.

From the layout and storage to the finishes and furniture, everything has been considered together to create homes that feel calm, characterful and easy to live in.

RESPECTING THE PAST, DESIGNED FOR TODAY

Bank House is a historic building with a rich story. Our role has been to carefully evolve that story, preserving its character while introducing contemporary homes for the way people live now.

The result is a collection of eight apartments that celebrate the heritage of the building while delivering modern comfort, functionality and style.

“Beautiful design is in the details.”

CONSIDERED • PRACTICAL • PERSONAL

A PALETTE INSPIRED BY BANK HOUSE

Deep olive and heritage greens reflect the character of the building, balanced with neutrals, black accents and natural textures for warmth and depth.

HISTORIC ROOTS. MODERN LIVING.

Bank House Apartments

Eight individual homes.
One iconic building.

A collection of eight newly created apartments, each designed around the individual proportions, outlook and character of Bank House.

From soaring ceilings and tall sash windows to Market Place views, split-level living and clever built-in storage, each apartment offers something slightly different. Situated in the heart of Pontefract, residents benefit from shops, cafés, services and transport connections immediately on their doorstep.
