

SHORT TITLE: Petitioner Reed Rando Respondent Monique Rando	CASE NUMBER: BD621137
--	---------------------------------

1. Attempted Notice

I attempted in good faith to inform the opposing party but was unable to do so because:
 (Describe efforts made to give notice)

I emailed the attorney for my ex husband informing him of my wish to ask the court ~~to~~ to uphold my custodial rights because he served me with

2. Waiver of Notice and/or Service:

Notice

- Giving notice would frustrate the purpose of the order.
- Giving notice would result in immediate and irreparable damage to me or the children who may be affected by the requested order.
- Giving notice would result in immediate and irreparable damage to or loss of property.
- We agreed in advance that notice was not necessary.

a restraining order that blocked my ability to visit my son during a SCHEDULED VISIT. Even though they requested to serve me via email they chose to wait until I flew to California to take my son to Disneyland & prevented the visit.

Service

There are extraordinary circumstances that imminent harm is likely if I serve (deliver) the documents to the other party before the hearing.

Provide the reasons why the court should waive notice service: _____

The details of the hearing for the return order through the Hague Convention must be kept confidential to avoid the potential exacerbation of an already volatile and uncooperative party: Reed Rando.

DECLARATION

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the information I have provided on this form and any attachment is true and correct.

SHORT TITLE: Petitioner Reed Randay Respondent Maricle Randay	CASE NUMBER: BD621137
--	------------------------------

3. I informed the other party the he/she should appear at the Family Law Court if he/she wished to be heard by the court on April 8 at 8:30 a.m. p.m. in department 22 located at: Los Angeles Superior Court 111 N. Hill St.
(DATE) (TIME) (COURTHOUSE ADDRESS)

4. I told the other party I would be asking for the following specific orders:
LA, CA 90012 Central District

Ex parte hearing on matters including but not limited to asking the court to protect and preserve my custodial rights as outlined in custody orders so I may see my son this weekend for his 4th birthday.

5. I asked the other party if they intended to appear at the hearing, and the other party responded:

They did not respond, and I was unable to contact my husband directly due to a temporary restraining order they served me to block my ability to exercise a previously scheduled weekend visit with my son

6. I asked the other party if they would be opposing the request, and the other party responded:

7. I asked if the other party would file a written opposition, and the other party responded:

B. SERVICE

Service of the documents requesting emergency orders has been completed. Proof of Service has been filed with the court.

Service of the documents requesting emergency orders has not been completed because:

I am requesting that service of the documents be waived by the court. (Complete Section C)

Other: Counsel did not show up to court and the details of the Hague Convention hearing for Return order are being kept confidential due to Petitioner's history of violence, being a flight risk and completely uncooperative and history of deprivation of custody and access

C. REQUEST TO WAIVE NOTICE AND SERVICE

I ask the court to waive notice service to all parties and their attorneys of the request for emergency order because: (Choose the option(s) that are applicable)

It would inhibit the courts ability to assist with the safe return of my son.
