The Court takes Judicial Notice of the Temporary Restraining Order which was granted on June 22, 2016. The Court further takes Judicial Notice that the hearing on Petitioner's Request for Domestic Violence Restraining Order was continued to July 20, 2016, then August 25, 2016, and then September 16, 2016. The Court further takes Judicial Notice of the July 25, 2016 Hague Decision of Hon. Maren E. Nelson, Judge. The Court further takes Judicial Notice that the parties reached a stipulation to dissolve the June 22, 2016 Temporary Restraining Order. Finally, the Court takes Judicial Notice that a new Temporary Restraining Order, which is before this Court today, was issued October 14, 2016.

The Court finds, pursuant to Family Code Section 3048, that:

- a. The court has jurisdiction to make orders regarding custody of the minor child/children under the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act.
- b. Notice and opportunity to be heard were given to the Petitioner and Respondent as provided by the laws of the State of California.
- c. The Child custody and parenting plan rights of each party are stated herein.
- d. A violation of this order may subject the party in violation to civil or criminal penalties or both.
- e. The country of habitual residence of the minor child is the United States of America.

Petitioner's Request for Domestic Violence Restraining Order is GRANTED. The Court finds that Petitioner has met his burden of proof to show that an act or acts of domestic violence occurred.

The Restraining Order is issued for a period of five years, and it shall expire at midnight on November 1, 2021.

The father/Petitioner shall have sole legal custody and sole physical custody of the minor child Hunter Randoy (DOB 04/10/2012).

The mother/Respondent shall have no visitation with the minor child except at the discretion of the father/Petitioner.

Restraining Order After Hearing is signed and filed.

Certified copies of the Restraining Order After Hearing are served this date on the Petitioner. Petitioner must arrange for proper service of the same on the Respondent.

A certified copy of the Restraining Order After Hearing is forwarded this date to the sheriff for CLETS entry.

The Court finds that this case is not ready for trial setting.

The Petitioner must serve, and file proof of such service of (form FL-141), his final Declaration of Disclosure prior to the next hearing date.
