COMMANDANT'S COMMENTS

Now is the time to prepare another article for the Journal. It seems that there are fewer and fewer days between these articles. I have just returned from a much-needed first vacation for this year and find that I have a lot of catching up to do. The work doesn't stand still just because you take a break.

While on vacation I checked in on a nephew who was preparing to move into a new home. He had placed all his household goods in storage because he had sold his last house. Just before he was set to move in, a tornado struck the storage place. He and the family are OK but all their furnishings are gone. We were in the general area of that tornado and it was a scary situation. That tornado was one of several that my wife and I have been very close to in the past month. Let's hope those events are over.

We have been saying all along what a great detachment we have. Last meeting we were talking with a member who lives outside the State. He said he had finally decided that he could not locate a detachment near him that he was comfortable with so he decided that each month he would travel here for our meetings. That is a great complement to our detachment.

Now is the time of the year that all God's creatures take stock in their lives and prepare for the future. You will see chipmunks and squirrels running around with their cheeks bulging with nuts etc. Birds and geese are gathering in flocks to begin their migration to another more suitable climate for a few months. Most everything realizes that they need to prepare for the next step in their lives.

We, as a detachment, have had some wonderful things happen in the past several months. We have gotten out and been seen in a positive light in several areas that we have not been able to in the past. We have made great contacts in the area and have been able to partner with some great people to get things done. We have, however, found that some of our members are not able to assist us in the same ways as they did prior. Some are not able to walk in parades, help in color guard, or fundraising events as they have done before. This is because of several different things such as their health, family commitments, and changes in their work schedules. This is to be expected, as we get older. We know that from time to time things change causing us to re-evaluate our situations and change our life styles.

Some are not able to assist us as they did prior and think they are letting us down. We are only asking each and every one of you to help when and where you are able. One way you can help is to spread the work to all Marines, FMF Corpsmen and Chaplains in the area about our detachment. If we are able to get the word out, we will be able to get more members. With more members comes the ability to have people who can do some of the things you are not now able to do. If everyone were able to get just ONE new member in the next few months we would double our detachment and be able to do most of the things we would like to.

We are going to be installing a new set of officers and staff in the coming weeks and we need new ideas on how to improve our detachment. If you have any idea get them to the staff. Even if you think it may be a little over the top; run it by us. It just might fit and we might be able to make it work. Looking forward to seeing all of you at the installation dinner. Remember to call and let me know how many are coming so I can get a head count. Be safe out there and get those flu shots to keep you healthy.

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

Greetings Marines;

Isn't it amazing that the older we get; the faster time seems to "fly by"? Regardless of our state of "maturity" we need to live life with a sense of urgency! Tomorrow is not promised. Remember the old quote: "don't leave for tomorrow what you can do today". As we get older this becomes more relevant.

Because "time waits for no man" we also need to resolve issues between family members today! We may not get an opportunity tomorrow. Likewise, with close friends. Don't let pride keep you from restoring or maintaining what would otherwise be a wonderful, God blessed relationship.

Every day, every week, every month and every year we experience life, it's all the sweeter when we can share it with family and friends! They are a gift from God. Enjoy them.

The 9th. month of the year has its own appeal. Not only does it imperceptibly begin to prepare us for yet another change in season, it also gives us an opportunity to celebrate and thank all our workers with a day off.

Some of us took this last holiday weekend of the summer season to start a new phase in our lives. I'm happy to report that the Landraus celebrated their 47th. wedding anniversary during the month of September, and the best is yet to come!

The Lord also saw fit to change my place of worship. I'm sure He has some fantastic experiences planned for me, and I can hardly wait!

That said, if you would like your fellow marines to celebrate, congratulate or commemorate with you on significant anniversaries, events or happenings in your life, I encourage you to send me that information. I would be proud to include them in my articles. Please send your information to landrauhank@gmail.com or call me at 224-440-5624

We are all one family, not just as marines, but as children of God. Let's share the good times, lets encourage each other during challenging times, but most importantly let's share God's love all the time.

Remember, we are not marines once a month, but all the time. We cannot care for each other unless we know what's going on with each us! We leave no one behind.

God bless you,

Dream fearlessly, live boldly!
