

Jr. Handler Veteran Award

8th Grade and Up | Canines 4 Christ

This award recognizes Jr. Handlers who make a point to have face-to-face interactions, practice eye contact and respectful communication, and demonstrate leadership skills.

REQUIREMENTS: Complete at least 5 of the 11 goals and 15 C4C visits.

☐

1. Conflict Resolution

Helps to resolve a conflict using respectful communication.

2. Conversation Starter

Actively engages with someone on a visit and leads a conversation. This goes beyond “yes” and “no” questions. The dialogue gets the person to open up and the Jr. Handler keeps the conversation going. Speaking up and eye-contact.

☐

3. Taboo Texting

The Jr. Handler isn't afraid to call someone and talk over the phone rather than text. A knock on the door and in person visit counts as well.

☐

4. “Tik-Tok” Time to Talk

The Jr. Handler verbally shares about a video they created on Tik-Tok, rather than just posting it.

☐

5. Proactive Production

The Jr. Handler completes an oral presentation (in a volunteer or school setting) where they produce a production (video presentation, oral report, running a booth, visual demonstration, etc.) to share about Canines 4 Christ.

☐

6. The Evangelist

The Jr. Handler boldly shares about Christ on a C4C visit.

☐

7. Asking for Prayer Requests

The Jr. Handler isn't afraid to ask people for prayer requests. They remember them, perhaps write them down, and actively pray for the person.

☐

8. Meet me where I'm at

The Jr. Handler is observant of who they are visiting. If visiting someone who is bedridden, in a wheelchair, or a child shorter than they are, the Jr. Handler kneels down to meet the person at eye level, creating a warmer and more inviting environment for conversation.

☐

9. Clear Communicative Leads

The Jr. Handler writes a summary (at least three paragraphs) on effective communication in leadership.

☐

10. Leadership Skills

The Jr. Handler shows leadership that is noticed by someone.

☐

11. Campus Bound

The Jr. Handler preps for their future college applications by documenting 50 hours of community service. These can be C4C visits, church ministry, helping out a neighbor, etc. This log is signed by a parent, pastor, or chapter leader.
