

The Davis Law Firm, P.C.
Divorce Prove Up Questions

For your upcoming agreed divorce prove up, I will ask you the following questions in front of the judge:

When it is our turn, we will approach the Judge's area and you will stand close to the court reporter so that they can hear you and the judge can hear you.

Please state your name for the record

What is your spouse's name?

Is it true that you and your spouse were married on or about _____?

Is it true that you and your spouse separated on or about _____?

Is it correct that you (or your spouse) lived in Texas at least six months before the divorce was filed?

Is it correct that you or your spouse lived in this county at least 90 days before the divorce was filed?

Is it correct that your marriage to your spouse has become insupportable because of discord or conflict of personalities that destroys the legitimate ends of the marriage relationship and that there is no reasonable expectation of reconciliation?

Do you believe that the terms of the division of your marital estate are a fair and just division?

ONLY IF NAME CHANGE REQUESTED

Are you (or your spouse) requesting a name change?

Is that reflected in the decree?

What is the new name being requested?

ONLY IF CHILDREN INVOLVED

Do you and your spouse have minor children?

Are all of your minor children named in your decree?

Are you (or is your wife) expecting a child at this time?

Were any other children adopted during the marriage?

Do you believe that the provisions in this decree regarding your children are in their best interest?

CONCLUSION

Do you recognize your spouse's signature on this decree?

Are you asking the Court to grant your divorce at this time?