TAJ HARI MAHAL, JODHPUR

The terra firma where Taj Hari Mahal stands, belongs to the erstwhile Late Maharaja Hari Singh Ji a fearless Rathore of the Rajput clan of Marwar. The Royal Residence was resurrected into a contemporary yet a palatial hotel and opened its doors to the guests in October 1999 under an agreement with the Taj - Group of Hotels which represented the Indian Hospitality in its true sense.

HISTORY & HERITAGE

Founded in 1459 the city of Jodhpur stands victoriously on the edges of the Thar desert, having withstood the ravages of time. Rich in history, culture and tradition, this city has an old-world charm which gracefully co-exists with its emergence as a major commercial centre. A part of the city skyline, constituting the August Meherangarh Fort and thronging blue roofs, is the Taj Hari Mahal. An accomplishment of architecture, it combines the straight lines of today's world with the domes and arches of a bygone era.

Taj Hari Mahal - truly a palace of the 21st century - lies 4 kms from the airport and 3.5 kms from the railway station and is spread over six lush acres of landscaped gardens. Drive in from the airport delighting in backseat surprises. Lobby is a unique mix of chic and classic. With its Marwar style architecture and Moghul-inspired domes, enameled murals, slender columns, and grand interiors.

Sheer fantasy comes alive.
