What do you need for the APE Award ceremony?

APE AWARD CEREMONIES

Before performing the ceremonies there are a couple of tip that you should know to make sure that the ceremony goes smoothly.

Ape award ceremony is meant to be shared with fellow peers, their friends, family, and or teammates.

By using the information from this powerpoint a ceremony is sure to go exactly as planned

We focus on the basic needs of the ceremonies. we hope to make ceremonies easy and very repeatable

Any question about the ceremony or sharing your video please contact:

Tips and Tricks: APE Award ceremony

1. Before starting the process of creating a ceremony, make sure to have the parents permission to grant the trophy, and being able to record the interaction
2. Make sure to have the extra copy of the vergabe with you before the ceremony begins
3. Understand the camera positions and how the receipt and the Headmaster should be filmed during the interaction
4. Be sure to have you ceremonie be witnessed by a small crowd of peers, family, teammates, and or friends.
5. It may be easier to have 2 cameras recording the interaction. one for the recipient and the other on the crowd.

APE AWARDS CAMERA CREW

- Find either someone in the crowd or someone before hand to film your interaction.
- Make sure to have the camera focus on the recipient and trophy during the interaction
- If your able to find a second camera have them focus on the crowd.
- Try your best to get the reaction of the crowd by panning in and out from the recipient and the headmaster.
- Make sure that all videos are done horizontally.
- After recording don't worry about any flaws or errors our editing team will get it ready
- Hopefully get some video of the honoree showing off the award to friends and family
- Please send any and all videos to the ape awards email.
