Championships Explained - Further details regarding show rules will follow

Timetable is set out so you can easily see what your second class is, they will be combined on nominate in one overall class. Please take note of the days

Competitors are required to compete in both halter rings, one day they will compete in the Australian ring and one day in the International ring.

Competitors not participating in both rings are not eligible for finals night

The Australian Ring is one judge on a comparative system and will be awarded Champion, Reserve and Top 5

The International Ring is multiple judges on a score card system and will be awarded Gold, Silver and Bronze Champions

Class ASR014 and ASR015 will be judged on Friday evening under two saddle judges, with the top 5 of each class going through to the Presentations of the Champion and Reserve Champion on Saturday Evening

Finals night - Champions from both Ring 1 and Ring 2 halter rings will compete in the finals night for champion of champions. Regardless if you only win one champion in one ring.

All halter judges will judge the halter classes on a comparative system on Finals night

The Ultimate Saddle Spectacular Grand Champion is for all Ridden Breed class Champions, both Derivative and Purebred will be judged as one on finals night

Ridden classes will be awarded Champion, Reserve and top 5

Only individual breed classes are eligible for finals night - Non pro and youth halter are excluded

Youth is under 18 years at time of show

Horses age is at time of show

Ridden horses must be 4 years of age to compete under saddle

All horses competing at this event must have a minimum of 12.5% (regardless of registry) APIs are not eligible to compete at this event.

Junior - 3 yrs and under, Senior 4 yrs & over

In the event of minimal entries in a class, the Reserve or Silver champion may be asked to attend Finals night

* Splitting or combining of classes

Junior Derivatives & Purebreds - Classes will be split into sexes if numbers warrant (must be a minimum of 3 in each sex) ie. Junior 2 & 3 yo Arabian Pony - 1st Split - Filly/colt/Gelding, 2nd Split 2yo/3yo. 2 & 3yo Purebred filly - split 2yo/3yo

A minimum of three horses per age group is required before a class will be considered for a split.

Any class not containing 3 or more horses will be combined i.e Yearling Quarab and 2 & 3 yo Quarab will become Junior Quarab

Ridden Classes will be split into sexes if there is a minimum of five per sex

Non Pro halter classes will be split into sexes if there is a minimum of five per sex
