

Dear Children's Caucus ...

We've all been busy deflecting political slings and arrows from MAGA, canvassing and phoning to bring in the vote for Prop 50, blocking the feints from Washington. It feels useful to enlist in this vanguard of retaliation. Beyond resistance, prop 50 is a path to hold and recover our democracy. Boundless thanks to those knocking their knuckles numb, and rasping their vocal cords raw.

So JoinUS! around our CDP Monterey Executive Board meeting. We'll be phoning from Monterey and whether you have traveled to join us there or are keeping the home fires burning, we invite you to join CademCC and the CADEM Organizing Committee for Saturday's phone bank:

Click here for information on how to join a phone bank on Saturday afternoon, 10/25/25 -- remote or in-person

Making Your Voice Heard

As a chartered caucus of the CA Democratic Party, CademCC itself takes no independent position on legislation, resolutions or the Platform; but CademCC's constituent individuals may. The Caucus may advocate as a collective entity for the Party's official, democratically-voted position. The caucus may convene to share information and resources among its membership.

If you would like help with or more information about CADEM internal processes, or to urge caucus advocacy for CADEM-supported legislation, CADEM resolutions or the CDP Platform, please email chair.cademcc@gmail.com.

CademCC Platform Study Group

We heard from CADEM Platform Committee co-chair Shanna Ingalsbee, and CademCC member and former CDP senior advisor, Adam Seiden, about the process of reviewing, editing, and reorganizing the CDP 2024 Platform. Written testimony must be submitted by Friday, November 14, 2025 at 5:00 pm. Several listening sessions for oral testimony in front of the Platform Committee's members remain. For help with written testimony or other questions about the Platform and its review process, please don't hesitate to reach out to any CademCC officer.

†† A “chaptered” bill has passed both houses and been signed into law by the governor.

Each and every time a bill comes:

- before a new committee or
- onto the house-floor or
- onto the governor’s desk,

there is opportunity to comment on the legislation. Weigh in!

“Enrolled” bills are awaiting the governor's signature. If not vetoed, it will go into law after 12 days (exceptions here). To override a veto requires 2/3 vote from both houses.

To Contact The Governor, select the 'active' bill and your position on it, be sure to follow all instructions through to pressing the "submit" button.

For bills still in the legislature, login to the website here. Press the tabs to locate the bill, its legislative analyses, original and amended text, a opt-in tracker for email alerts to follow a bill between committees/houses, etc. Comments left on this site reach only the author of a bill; to officially submit your individual position to the record, use this portal (separate login). If the bill has passed both its houses and is waiting for the executive, record your position with the Governor here.
