

2022 SPRING SUPPLEMENT HUNTING GUIDE

MINISTER'S MESSAGE

Welcome to the 2022 Spring Supplement of the Manitoba Hunting Guide and to Manitoba. As minister of Manitoba Natural Resources and Northern Development, I'm excited to be working to support the provincial government's renewed focus on responsible stewardship and development of Manitoba's abundant world-class natural resources.

Hunting is deeply embedded in the history of our province. My department recognizes the fact that our wildlife resources and their utilization are important to a variety of people as a part of their culture, a source of natural food and a means to support local economies. Our government is committed to ensuring that hunting will continue to be available to all Manitobans. All of Manitoba Natural Resources and Northern Development will continue to work with you to preserve hunting as an important part of Manitoba's heritage. I wish all hunters a productive, memorable hunting season.

SPRING CONSERVATION GOOSE SEASONS AND BAG LIMITS

The giant Canada goose population in southern Manitoba has been growing substantially since 1990. The breeding population is now estimated at 234,600, the highest recorded since 1955. Environment and Climate Change Canada declared the breeding population of Canada geese in southern Manitoba (GBHZ 3 & 4) as overabundant. This declaration has enabled Manitoba to implement a Spring Conservation Canada Goose Season. Hunting is considered the most efficient means to reduce the population size of an overabundant population.

To participate in these seasons, hunters require the previous year's (2021) Canada Migratory Game Bird Hunting Permit and Wildlife Habitat Conservation Stamp and a no charge 2022 Spring Conservation Goose Licence. These licences are available online at permis-permits.ec.gc.ca and manitobaelicensing.ca.
