La Crosse Area Occupational Safety and Health Council Members,

Thank you for your dedication toward promoting safety in the La Crosse Area! Because of your participation we have been able to offer local safety resources to keep our employees and community a little more safe. We are excited about the future of LAOSHC and have great plans for how our organization can add more benefit to members. Your board is working hard to offer more programming next year and to bring additional training topics to our area. Thank you for your patronage in 2018 and we hope to see you again in 2019!
