A Message from Pastor Brandt

Letter Writing

Remember 50 or more years ago when a postage stamp was a fraction of what it costs now, and a long distance phone call was astronomical! I know that my family never made long distance calls unless it was an emergency or a very special occasion; and then it was for 2-3 minutes! Today, it's just the opposite: postage is 55 cents, and phone calls anywhere within the U.S. are free with unlimited time, just paying the monthly flat billing rate. I remember that my mother would send every church friend, cousin, aunt and uncle, parents, children, grandchildren, etc. a birthday card; and if they lived out of town, she wrote a letter with it. When you couldn't see a person face to face, letters were the primary means of communication. Even in New Testament times, the Apostles wrote letters; Paul writing thirteen of them himself in our Scriptures; and probably many more which weren't recorded. How times have changed! Writing with correct grammar has nearly become a lost art, with young people texting in "shortcut" fashion. It's interesting how we were able to correspond during this COVID 19 Pandemic. We began by emailing written sermons; then recording live from the church pulpit; and now having "drive-in" services. But how I miss the one-on-one contact—seeing each of you face to face. How I miss the gentle hugs before and after the service. (I also remember my 'ole German Dad saying that men weren't supposed to hug—either men or women). Personally, I like the half hug—putting my left arm around your shoulder and giving a little pat on the back! Have you missed gathering for worship? When we come together for worship, it is for the purpose of receiving God's gifts of Word and Sacrament and responding with praise and thanksgiving. But it is also for seeing one another face to face for the purpose of encouraging one another in faith, spurring one another on in love and good works, and ultimately being the Body of Christ. Thanks be to God for the blessing of electronic means of proclaiming and receiving the Word during these difficult times. But we are able to say with St. Paul, "Since we were torn away from you, brothers and sisters, for a short time, in person not in heart, we endeavored the more eagerly and with great desire to see you face to face." Thus, let us not neglect meeting together. Rather, let us come to hear God's Word, receive the Lord's Supper, sing hymns of praise, and fellowship with our brothers and sisters; sharing their griefs and concerns, trials and tribulations, as well as rejoicing in their stories of joy and happiness. Remember: Through the storm we will not walk alone. Joshua encourages us: "The Lord your God is with you wherever you go" (1:9). And go in peace!

Love in Christ,
Pastor Gary Brandt

Worship in the Parking Lot

April 26th was a new first for Peace Lutheran Church. After weeks of waiting for equipment to be shipped, experimenting with how the equipment worked and trying to find a microphone that we could use, we held the first ever drive through service in our parking lot. We had 42 people receive communion in their automobiles. This was a slightly abbreviated service, since we need to work on how to transmit our music, but we had a beautiful day, great sermon and communion. Thanks to all who attended. Assuming we will need to maintain “social distancing” and refrain from gathering in large groups, this will be our Sunday service for the near future. Come join us for our Sunday Service in the parking lot!

The Latest News at Peace

First and most importantly, I hope this finds you in good health and surviving the imposed staying at home. It actually has not been too bad. I've read a few novels and got much of our spring cleanup done outside.

At the moment we are anticipating the first services at the church in six weeks will be May 3. If we have luck with shipping, we could have our first service April 26, although it would be a drive up movie style.

None of us were prepared, or ever expected the government would recommend closing our doors for two weeks, let alone six. It honestly took us some time to sort out what our options might be. The first thing we thought of was copying what Hope Chapel has done for twenty plus years, having drive up services in our automobiles. Pastor Anderegg researched the options available for us to accomplish having drive up services. He found a low output FM transmitter that we could use in the church and transmit the service live to the radios in our cars. What church and transmit the service live to the radios in our cars. What was even more exciting was the cost was in the range of $150.00. What wasn't so exciting was it would not be shipped for at least 30 days. Since there was no way to call a special Voters Meeting to get approval, I had it ordered anyway. I figured the worst thing that would happen is you would impeach me.

Friday, April 17, we found it was now in Carol Stream, IL. Our hope is that we will receive it the week of April 19th and have it available to have church on April 26. If we do not receive it until the following week, we will have the service for May 3rd (the last day of the current stay at home order) as a drive up service. We will keep you informed via email, and your Elder will contact you when we can start having church together again.

We have been attempting to keep you informed via email and our Facebook page, of information available for your personal religious service on Sundays. Starting available for your personal religious service on Sundays. Starting with the Good Friday service, we have been able (with Pastor Anderegg and Russell Schulz assistance) to video the sermons. These are being placed on our Facebook page and have also been sent to all of you who have given the church your email address. I hope you have had the opportunity to view and use these in your personal Sunday worship. Not the same as going to church, but better than no assistance.

For all our future we will be better prepared to react to new and unusual circumstances that occur in our society.

I am personally looking forward to seeing all of you at church. I don't know about you but I did not realize how much of my life is tied to Peace and each of you.

Stay safe, God's Blessing on each of you.

Box Tops for Education: Diane Borgmann will continue to collect them.

Kitchen: Diane Borgmann stated the kitchen is in good shape.

We will look into other local places that can use baby blankets and quilts. We will still accept crocheted or knitted afghans. Lake Regional could use lap blankets for the cancer center. After much discussion we decided to work on these projects with no time limits. Jacey will check into getting monies from Thrivent for materials.

Old Business

We looked at the patterns and sample of the Christmas Chrismons Carol Murrell brought. Cathie Mueller will go through and repair the old Chrismons. Moines will be requested for this project through Thrivent.

Paula Emery provided samples of the praying hand design she found on the internet. We would need to make 100-120 tray favors. Lake Regional will not be accept any tray favors until after the corona virus is over.

New Business

The Easter breakfast should be a congregation project with LWML coordinating it.

With the upcoming rally and Easter breakfast, it was decided to cancel the April 13 meeting. The next meeting will be May 11. Hostess will be Jacey Heinlein and the roll call word will be “ascension.” Thank you to Vicki Stauch for hosting. We closed with the Lord’s Prayer and the common table prayer.

Meeting in the Air

The message paraphrases Christ’s return this way: “The Master Himself will give the command. Archangel thunder! God’s trumpet blast! He’ll come down from heaven and the dead in Christ will rise—they’ll go first. Then the rest of us who are still alive at the time will be caught up with them into the clouds to meet the Master...then there will be one huge family reunion...So reassure one another with these words’ (vv. 16-18). The second coming of Christ will be inaugurated by the trumpet blast of the archangel. Cemeteries and seas will give up their dead. ‘Christ...will appear a second time...to save those who are eagerly waiting for him’ (Hebrews 9:28). The event will be witnessed by all humanity. ‘Every eye shall see him’ (Revelation 1:7) From Adam to the baby born as the trumpet sounds, every one of us will witness the moment. But not everyone will welcome it. ‘Unready people all over the world...will raise huge lament as they watch the Son of Man blazing out of heaven’ (Matthew 24:30). You don’t go to heaven by chance, you go by Grace—God’s! And God loves you and wants you with him eternally. Those who acknowledge Christ as their Savior will arise to celebrate the greatest family reunion of all time. Are you going to heaven? If you’re not sure, don’t let this day end until you put your trust in Christ Jesus and accept His free gift of Salvation that comes through Jesus Christ.

Prayer: Heavenly Father, I cannot wait for when we are “caught up” to be with You because of Your Son Jesus. Amen.

Answer: anyone, Christ, new, creation, come, old, gone, new, here

More apologetics for the special revelation of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ with ten arguments that the gospel writers told the truth.

1. The NT contains embarrassing accounts about the apostles, some of whom wrote those accounts. Most often writers don't include things that would embarrass or make themselves look bad unless it is true. Some examples are:

- A. The disciples appeared confounded at times. They often failed to comprehend what Jesus was saying. (Mark 9:32 "But they did not understand the saying..."; Luke 18:34 "But they understood none of these things..."; John 12:16 "His disciples did not understand these things at first...")
- B. Even though they believed Jesus to be the Messiah, they seemed to be uncaring at times. In Mark 14:32-41 Jesus finds them twice sleeping during His hour of greatest need after he had asked them to watch and pray. They didn't even give him a proper burial; that was left to Joseph of Arimathea.
- C. The disciples were reprimanded. Jesus tells Peter, "Get behind me Satan." Mark 8:33. He chides them for being of "little faith." Matthew 8:26, 14:31, 16:8, Luke 8:25. Paul opposes Peter, one of the most respected men of the early church, for being wrong about a theological issue. Gal. 2:11.
- D. The disciples act cowardly. They run away when Jesus is taken prisoner and all but John hide when Jesus is crucified. Peter denies Jesus three times after telling him he would never do so. Matt. 26:33-35. As they hide it's up to the women to visit the tomb and discover that He has risen.
- E. They doubt that Jesus rose from the dead even though He told them that He would. John 2:18-22, 3:14-18, Matt. 12:39-41, 17:9, 22-23. Some doubted even after they see him. Matt 28:17. It's not likely that they would include these accounts of cowardice, rebukes, ineptitude, doubting, and arguments among one another unless they were true. If they were making up a story, it is more likely that they would've painted themselves in a much more favorable light, especially if they had ulterior motives in mind. They would've made themselves heroic, perhaps saying that they confidently overtook the Roman guards as they marched up and rolled away the stone to find the risen Savior ready to walk out of the tomb and, then, being praised by Him for their great faith. Also the women who visited the tomb, whose testimonies were not considered credible, would not be in the story. Thus these embarrassing narratives can be viewed as evidence for the truthfulness of the gospels.

Next month: Argument 2: Difficult sayings and details of Jesus life.

Every One His Witness

Joy Is Set Before You

Jesus invites you to share in His joy – to “come and see!” REJOICE WITH ME, for I have found my sheep that was lost. ...REJOICE WITH ME, for I have found the coin that I had lost. ... Bring the fatted calf and kill it, and LET US EAT AND CELEBRATE. For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. (Luke 15:6, 9, 23-24)

You have been given a tremendous privilege! God has called you to join Him in His mission” to seek and save the lost.” The Lord expresses great joy in His work to gather His people, and He makes ways for you to share in His joy. Being a witness of Jesus in your everyday life is an invitation into the joy of Jesus. Just as you invite people to “come and see” when sharing to Good News, your Savior invites you to “come and see” the joy that awaits you as His witnesses. “Rejoice with Me!” He calls out above the noise of the world and fears of your heart. “Come and share in My joy.”

www.everyonehiswitness.org

To learn how to be an effective witness for Jesus, previous evangelism columns beginning with the Feb. 2019 newsletter have excellent insights from the Every One His Witness program. The newsletters are posted on our website at www.plccamdenton.org. The “Every One His Witness” program is a course from the LCMS that churches and schools are using to teach effective ways to speak to others about Jesus using the LASSIE approach: Listen, Ask, Seek, Share, Invite, and Encourage.

Prayer: Dear God, Thank you for the free gift of eternal life in Christ Jesus. Help me to share the news of this important and valuable gift. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Giving Generously

Our Savior calls us to follow Him in generosity. “For I have given you an example, that you also should do just as I have done to you.” (John 13:15) We cannot give our lives for the salvation of the world, of course. Praise God – that job’s already done!

But with hearts full of thanksgiving for what Jesus has given us, we can follow Jesus’ example of generous giving. And this is not merely an example alone. It’s also our Lord’s command. “The one who contributes, (let him give) in generosity.” (Rom. 12:8)

So, when we give to help others who are in need, and when we bring offerings to the Lord, we should strive to heed His command and follow the pattern He has established for us. Jesus did not give us leftovers. He gave His best. So, we should not give leftovers, either, but the first and best of what He has given us. Jesus did not give as an afterthought, but according to the plan of salvation God established from the foundation of the world.

So, when it comes to our offerings to the Lord, we should make a thoughtful plan to give generously, in proportion to the way He has blessed us. Like the Macedonian Christians, who gave according to their ability – and even beyond their ability (2 Cor. 8:3) – we can and should give a generous portion of the income that God provides us to honor the Lord.

So also, we should give freely, just as Jesus gave freely for us. There is no compulsion involved in our works of love and our offerings to the Lord. Nor do we give grudgingly. We should give freely and cheerfully because we want to out of thanksgiving. “Each as he purposes in his heart,” as the Lord says. (2 Cor. 9:7) There is no New Testament ceremonial law involved here. Rather, we are free to give as generously as our Savior has given for us.

In the same way, our Lord teaches us to give generously out of love – love for Him and for our neighbor. Genuine love is always love in deed (1 John 3:18), love such as Jesus showed us all. It is love that sees our neighbor in need and gives generously to help him. It is love that hears the Word of the Lord and does what it says. If we truly love, we give generously. If we give without love, our giving is not truly following Jesus.

Finally, we follow Jesus in generosity when we give for a good purpose to thank the Lord and support His gospel ministry and other works of mercy. The people of Israel gave generously for the service of God’s gospel purposes, to construct and support the operation of the tabernacle. For that was the place where the Lord received the Old Testament sacrifices, through which He bestowed the forgiveness of sins on His people. So, they

Israel gave generously for the service of God’s gospel purposes, to construct and support the operation of the tabernacle. For that was the place where the Lord received the Old Testament sacrifices, through which He bestowed the forgiveness of sins on His people. So, they gave abundantly – so abundantly that they had to be told to stop giving. (Ex. 36:5-6)

In the same way, we should bring generous offerings to support the Lord’s work of bestowing His gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation in our congregations through the preaching and teaching of His Word, Baptism, and the Lord’s Supper. We should support the Lord’s work of caring for those who are poor and needy.

Our Savior calls us to follow His example in generous giving. Let us then, with thankful hearts, rededicate ourselves to following Him in generosity.
