Message from the President

August has been a busy month as it always is at the Lake. Your Call/Planning Committee continues to meet on the Plus One Initiative as well as planning activities bi-weekly.

As representatives of Peace Lutheran Church, Bob Mueller and I attended an LCMS Missouri District meeting, "Churches Planting Churches". There were eleven churches invited to attend this two and a half day meeting, all involved in the planning process. I think we both thought we were going to be bored, but it turned out to be a well-planned, meeting/work session with the Center for United States Missions and LCMS Missouri District Staff leading the work session. We spent seventeen hours in meetings and another five hours preparing in our rooms for the next day's sessions.

Most of the churches had three to seven members (including their Pastor) in attendance, and had we known how good these sessions were going to be we would have asked the District to allow us to send the whole Call/Planning Committee.

It was a lot of intense education and discussion with other churches about their problems, all different from ours, and discussing ways to attempt to solve them. At the end of the session, each group (Bob and I being a group), was asked to make a seven minute power point presentation on their program, including any modifications that came out of the sessions, then to respond to seven minutes of questions from the group and then to pray for each group to accomplish their goals. Everyone was invited to prepare a written critique (positive and negative) of the presentations and plans. We received twenty-nine written critiques, which we will share with the Call/Planning Committee.

We went to all the sessions, did our homework and slept, and we still came home tired. Happy we had attended, but physically tired.

We have also had a month of good attendance at church, much of which has been visitors.

This month, as your representative, I will attend a Circuit meeting where both the Pastor and a lay representative of each church will be in attendance. We will not have a Pastor yet, but I have been asked to attend. Since we have never had a lay person attend, although these type of meetings are held twice annually, I am not sure what to expect, but we will be there and represent Peace.

Ladies, if you did not have the opportunity to attend the LWML Salad Luncheon and Style Show, you missed a great lunch and time. Thanks to the LWML for all they do for Peace.

Be sure and get September 21, 4:30 to 7:00 pm, on your calendar for the Spaghetti Dinner Fund Raiser. If you haven't already done so, volunteer and sign up for one of the jobs on the credenza.

Mic Carlson

Our Mission

"We the members of Peace Lutheran Church gather and grow together as God's children and rejoice in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, proclaim His word, and reach out with his love to: each other, our community, and the world."

Seventy-seven Years of Serving the Lord through Music

The following article is reprinted from Saint Paul Lutheran High School Concordia, MO Facebook Page

Mr. Jerome Tobias Schwab celebrated his 90th birthday on August 20. He was a 1949 graduate of St. Paul's College and a 1954 graduate of Concordia Teacher's College, Seward, NE (BS Ed). He also received his Masters in Music from Northwestern University in 1957. From 1952 to 1960 Mr. Schwab taught at Messiah Lutheran School and was the Music Director at the church in Independence, MO. He was called to St. Paul's College in 1960 as Instructor (assistant Professor 1966, Associate Professor 1970, Full Professor 1984). He was in charge of the Music Dept. at SPC and was especially known for his excellent choirs and organ playing. He married Dianna Holland who was also a music instructor (piano) at SPC and they were blessed with three children. When the college dept. closed in June of 1986 they moved back to Independence, MO and taught at Kansas City Lutheran (high school). They retired and moved to Warsaw, MO. Mr. Schwab's father (the Rev. Walter Schwab) was also a part-time instructor at St. Paul's Lutheran High School for several years during the 70s.

Service Opportunities

Every year about this time, your Nominating Committee begins the task of talking to members about serving, or continuing to serve as officers and directors of Peace Lutheran Church. Our church runs on the backs of its member volunteers. Your Nominating Committee will soon be appointed.

The matrix below identifies most, or all of the positions that are available for you to serve.

Prayerfully consider how you could most effectively serve, in our Lord's house, and consider volunteering your time and talents, which would help our Nominating Committee and President.

Coming Next Month

On October 31 we will host the trunk or treat for the children of the community. We had approximately 67 children attend last year. Watch for further information in the bulletin and newsletter.

Rave Reviews

We received a comment about the fashion show and salad luncheon. Check out pages 6-8 for the various fashions.

“What a fun day. The lunch was delicious. The fashion show was the funniest one I have ever seen. Who ever came up with the ideas did a great job. It was so funny and to top it off it was free. Where can you go to have a great lunch and funny fashions and it didn't cost anything. A job well done. Thanks for the invite.”

Preparing for the Fashion Show

Several ladies came together on Saturday, August 3rd to work on the outfits to be worn for the fashion show to be held August 22 along with a salad luncheon. Final preparations were made at the August LWML meeting.

August 22 Fashion Show Results

A total of 53 ladies enjoyed the afternoon attending the salad luncheon and fashion show at Peace. All the ladies did a fine job of modeling and looked very “stylish” in their outfits.

We thank Vicki Lamb for all of her hard work in gathering materials for the costumes, to Paula Emery for making all the table favors, Cathie Mueller for being the “common tater” and all of those who participated in the fashion show and brought salads.

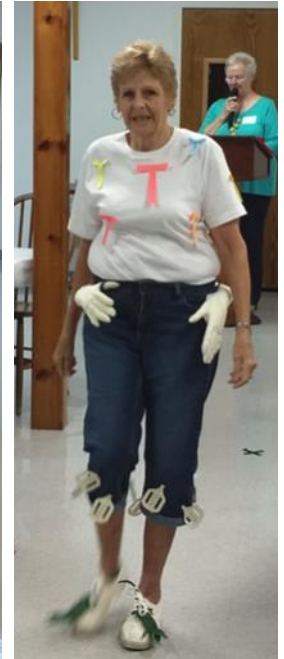

Penny was part of the teenage group wearing tube top and “baggy” pants and wearing mule shoes.

Jan is wearing a sweet ensemble with a pony tale for her sweet sixteenth birthday.

Jacly wearing an “A line” skirt with a silky “egg shell” blouse with “capped” sleeves.

Diane was part of the teenage group wearing a tee shirt with hip hugger petal pushers with crocs.

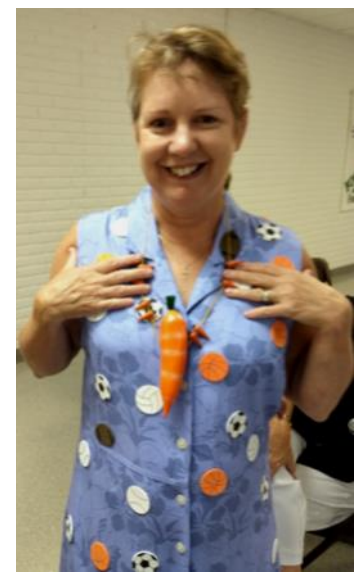

Irma was queen of the fashion show, a bright and shiny member of Peace.

Diana was part of the teenage group wearing wing color blouse, tulip skirt and can cans with saddle oxfords and bobby socks.

Sheila is wearing a sundress and her bloomers were peeking out.

Paula is stylish in her “ball” gown and 14 karat necklace.

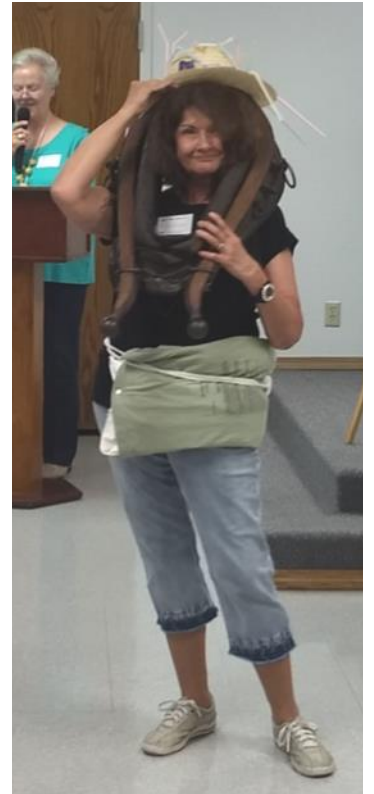

Diane is wearing her smoking jacket and jam-mies.

Vicki is stylish in her pill box hat and boa and carrying a bucket purse.

Vicki is wearing a heavy "car" coat and snow shoes and mittens for making snowballs.

Susan is wearing "hot pants", wide collar shirt with a straw hat.

Dawn sporting her "cotton house" coat and her hair done in an up do style.

Penny is a flower child with her hip hugger "bell" bottoms and wearing a "crop" top.

Shelia is wearing a flower garden dress, hat and boots.

Penny is wearing a "flapper" dress and a beehive hair do.

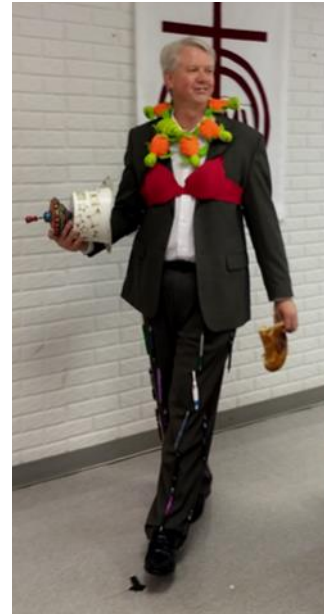

Jan is wearing a “cardigan” sweater.

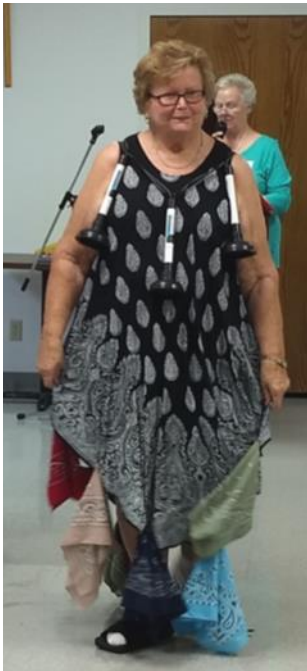

Vicki is wearing a “veggie” garden dress and hat.

At a slumber party: Dawn is wearing her “PJs” fuzzy shoes with her hair in “pig” tails.

Pastor Anderegg looks stylish in his double breasted jacket and pin strip trousers with a turtle neck sweater and top hat.

Jacky is wearing a “handkerchief” hemline dress with a “plunging” neckline.

Susan is wearing a “cocktail” dress and “cocktail” glass necklace and a “stocking” cap. Behind Susan is our “common tater” Cathie.

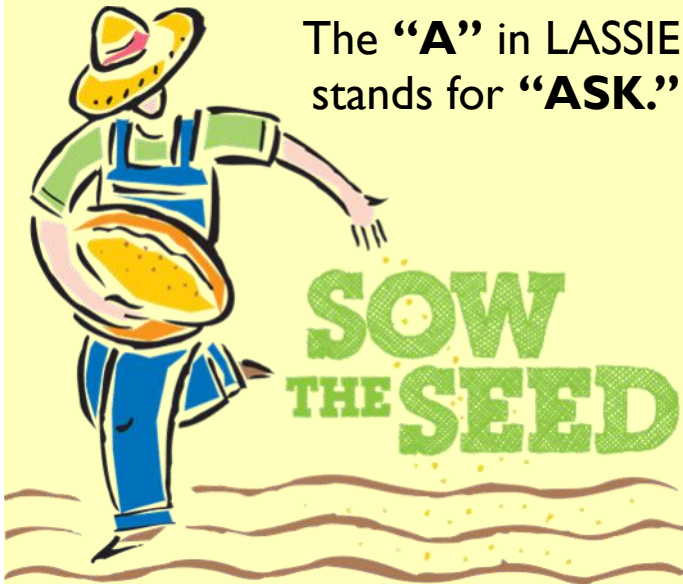

Vicki is wearing her “bib” overalls with a checkered shirt. Rumored to represent her checked past.

Everyone His Witness: LASSIE

The “A” in LASSIE stands for “ASK.”

Asking questions couples well with Listen because it encourages people to continue to speak, which presents opportunities to continue to listen. Asking good questions is a great way to learn about a person’s life, spirituality, politics, beliefs and a host of subjects and is more effective than merely making statements. It also shows that we are interested in the person as a person, not just as a spiritual conquest and presents to them respect and dignity. Jesus often asked questions when confronting others. (See Matthew 16:13-15, Mark 10:17-18, and Mark 16:46b-47, 51.)

There are advantages to asking questions rather than making statements. Questions encourage discussion and thinking about a topic more deeply, and lessens a person’s resistance to being open. As statements usually focus on a single point, questions can lead to a world of possibilities. Like listening, questions should relate to how a person connects and communicates (Remember ‘head, heart and hands’ as explained in an earlier column.) A “head” person more likely will relate to information oriented questions that will tell you how the person thinks and understands. Ask a “heart” person questions that are centered on emotions in order to tell how the person feels. With a “hands” person, ask questions dealing with practical matters to shed light into the person’s sense of purpose and how it refers to spiritual matters. Presenting questions in this manner will make the person more at ease in connecting and communicating. So how can one tell if a question should be geared to the head, heart or hands? By listening! As you listen, endeavor to discover the person’s communication preference and then ask questions that line up with it. Remember to be genuine and sincere, use non-threatening questions, ask to clarify when necessary, and use open-ended questions that can’t be answered with a simple yes or no, which will prompt longer, informative answers. Avoid questions that come across as condescending or talking down to people that or make the person feel foolish. Don’t interrupt. Let the speaker speak and finish their thought to let them know you are listening and you will also gain more insights into how they feel. Don’t word statements as questions. People may see that as a dishonest foolish. Don’t interrupt. Let the speaker speak and finish their thought to let them know you are listening and you will also gain more insights into how they feel. Don’t word statements as questions. People may see that as a dishonest attempt to control the conversation. Using questions like, “Don’t you think that...?” or ending a question with, “... isn’t that right?” is really making a statement instead of asking a question. Also, don’t assume. Just because a person uses terms or ideas that seem to be Christian, don’t assume that their knowledge and use is the same as yours. Ask for clarification. And don’t assume you know what the person is going to say by mentally filling in the blanks or finishing their sentences. And finally, don’t try to trap the speaker as if it’s a courtroom soap opera. Someone feeling “boxed in” is a good way to end the conversation.

Questions come in three chief forms: basic, exploratory, and challenging. Basic questions start out with Who, What, Why, Where, When, or How and are good for obtaining information and meaning. Examples might be: Who is God? What do you know about Jesus? What are your thoughts on the Bible? etc. Exploratory questions deal with reasons, evidence, and conclusions. They examine the reason why a person says what they say and seeks to understand their viewpoint. Why do you believe that ___ is true? What evidence do you have for ___? Or How do you know ___? are examples. Challenge questions probe deeper and key in on worldviews and beliefs such as: What if ___ isn’t true? How would you answer an objection to ___? What is your response to ___? Or What are you implying when you say ___? Care must be given not to ask challenge questions too soon in the talk as they could make the person uneasy. And remember the dos and don’ts as discussed above. Listen and Ask in the LASSIE format are designed to keep a conversation going and moving forward.

We will be conducting the EOHW evangelism class at Peace in the near future. This new program features the LASSIE approach to evangelism designed to help one become a more effective witness for Jesus. ## What This Test is About

These have come so that your faith—of greater worth than gold, which perishes even though refined by fire—may be proved genuine and may result in praise, glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed. 1 Peter 1:7

The tests we face reveal both our weaknesses and our strengths. When the Bible speaks of 'a refiner's fire' (see Malachi 3:2), we're inclined to think of the negative things God wants to remove from our character. But we also have inner strengths and gifts that need to be refined but we're not aware of them because a demand hasn't been placed on them. In 1 Kings 17, when the widow and her son met Elijah there was a famine in the land, and he asked her to share their last meal with him. Maybe you're thinking, 'Typical preacher!' Don't be too quick to jump to conclusions! One of the best days in this woman's life was when God placed a demand on her faith. Her response changed her future and saved her family. So when you're faced with a need, how do you respond? Do you withdraw? Withhold? Give a sense of obligation? Or do you see it as an opportunity to obey God and change your future? You can actually give your way out of trouble? (See 2 Corinthians 9:6-11.) When God sent Moses to Pharaoh, He said, 'The king of Egypt will not let you go unless a mighty hand compels him' (Exodus 3:19). And today God may be permitting the enemy to test you in order to reveal:

- 1) how much He cares for you;
- 2) how you'll act when your back's against the wall;
- 3) who you'll believe when God says, 'I will bring you out with a mighty hand,' and the enemy is saying, 'I won't let you go.'

That's what this test is about.

Prayer: Heavenly Father, test me to make me stronger. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Tim Hetzner, President/CEO of Lutheran Church Charities

What is a steward? Most people will say a steward is a manager.

That is correct, but it is only half right. A steward is indeed a manager, but he is a manager of what does not belong to him. Someone else is the owner, and the steward manages the owner's property on the owner's behalf.

We are God's stewards. Our stewardship is that God has made us managers of what belongs to Him:

"For we brought nothing into this world, and we cannot take anything out of the world" (1 Tim. 6:7).

Everything that we have and everything that we are comes from God's fatherly divine goodness and mercy. God is the owner.

This is not only because He created all things; He is also the redeemer. He has redeemed – that is, purchased – and won all things. Therefore, it all belongs to Him.

We are simply managers of everything in this world. Like Joseph in Egypt, we are put in charge of managing what belongs to God. What a privilege.

Think about that for a minute. The all-knowing, all-powerful, all-wise God has asked us to manage his possessions on His behalf here on earth.

And by doing this, He invites us to take part in the allocation of His good gifts. He wants us to give our input and advise Him in where His gifts are to be used. What a privilege indeed.

But what a responsibility!

"Everyone to whom much was given, of him much will be required" (Luke 12:48b).

We are not the owners. And while He puts us as managers, we are still to do with His property what He wants done with it. That means we need to know what He desires and wills for His property.

How do we know this? How can we know the will and mind of God?

We find the will of God in the Bible. There God tells us what His will is for all of His gifts. He tells us how we are to spend our time and use our talents and treasures. He instructs us in the use of our minds, bodies, and souls.

There is nothing we have that doesn't belong to Him.

"Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God? You are not your own, for you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body" (1 Cor. 6:19–20).

God informs us of the big picture, the overarching policy, of how we as His stewards – managers and custodians – are to manage His property.

And that is stewardship. It is simply doing what God wants us to do with what He has given us.

As St. Paul said,

"Do not present your members to sin as instruments for unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and your members to God as instruments for righteousness" (Rom. 6:13).

So, let's dive into God's Word, and listen to what He desires from His stewards.

Council Meeting - August 13

President Mic Carlson called the meeting to order at 6:30 P.M. and opened with prayer.

The following board members were present: Mic Carlson, Susan Kral, Rita Riemann, Vicki Stauch, Bob Mueller, Diane Borgmann, Dawn Hedberg, Bob Borgmann, and Russell Schultz. Absent: Jeff Emery, Chuck Kral, and Penny Jost. The minutes from the July 8, 2019 meeting were approved.

Financial Secretary: Vicki Stauch presented her report. She stated that giving is down approximately $3,000.00 compared with this time last year. The report was accepted and approved.

Treasurer: Rita presented her report. The report was accepted and approved.

Elders: Bob Mueller reported that the elders met on August 11.

- Duties of elders were reviewed.
- Telephone lists of members were assigned.
- It was noted that Bob Mueller's phone number needs to be updated. The correct number will be published in Sunday bulletins.
- Performance expectations and salary guidelines for a part-time pastor were discussed.

Thank you to Joe Stauch for making crosses to give to visitors and to Vicki Stauch for putting in the strings. His report was accepted and approved.

Ushers: Bob Borgmann reported that Tim Kern, a friend of his, will try to get the carillon bells functioning properly.

Keys for the church office have been made for those who need one.

Bob's report was accepted and approved.

Member at Large: No report

Trustees: Chuck Kral submitted a written report.

Trustees: Chuck Kral submitted a written report.

- Mowing has been done as needed. Thank you to Jeff Emery for helping.
- He cleaned the culvert under the driveway coming in from Highway 5.
- He and Jaccy Heinlein discussed getting Thrivent funds to purchase materials to repair the cemetery fence.
- He will set a date for fence repair when the weather is cooler.

His report was accepted and approved.

Education: Vacant

Evangelism: Russell Schultz reported the following:

- Newsletter columns will be continued.
- Brochures containing information about Peace Lutheran will be placed in area Chambers of Commerce when we have a pastor.
- Information about our worship services will be placed on the Chambers web pages and face book pages prior to Labor Day.
- Russell's report was accepted and approved.

Stewardship: Dawn Hedberg reported the following:

- Diane Borgmann has made church directories for both of our guest pastors and for guest members. Dawn requests that members continue collecting cans.
- She will take aluminum cans to be recycled.
- She encourages everyone to read our church bulletins, newsletters and the Lutheran Witness magazines.

The report was accepted and approved.

Cemetery: Diane Borgmann reported the following:

- She has received $250.00 from the Thrivent team for the beautification of the cemetery. She will purchase top soil, fertilizer, and grass seed. She will also purchase annual flowers if funds are available.
- She has scheduled a work day on Saturday, August 17 to raise sunken marker stones.
- The cemetery checking account balance is $2,217.86 as of July 31, 2019.

Diane's report was accepted and approved.

Pastor: Vacant.

Old Business:

- The Cemetery Perpetuity Application is not completed. It will be done when time is available.
- Our excess cash has not yet been put into CDs or LCEF. Mic is waiting for interest rates to improve.
- The call committee has not yet gotten to the point where they can review candidates. They are waiting for synod to submit a list of possible candidates.

New Business:

1. Call Committee Report:

New Business:

1. Call Committee Report:

- The Peace Lutheran Church Planning Report is completed.
- The committee reviewed the Plus One Initiative proposal. Members will send suggested changes to Jeff Emery. The initiative will be sent to District. District's review and approval will probably take a few weeks.
- Mic and Bob Mueller will attend a District Conference in Springfield beginning on Aug. 15 to Aug. 17. They hope to encourage a timely formation of a call list.
- When District provides a list, the committee will review the candidates, contact them the, and present a list to the Peace Lutheran congregation.

2. Pastoral coverage is assigned through September.

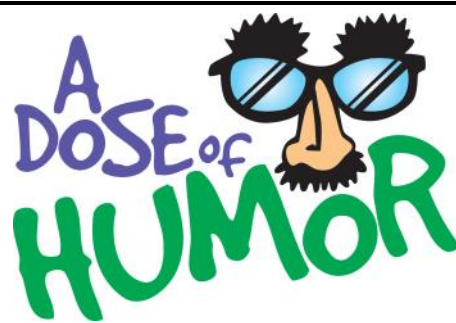

3. The office computer, which was purchased in 2004, is not working properly. It wastes at least 10 minutes to "warm up" when turned on. It stops working when printing and has to be turned off to finish the job. It is out of memory. Microsoft 7 will no longer provide support on line after Dec 31.

The board authorized Mic Carlson to get three cost quotations and select the quote that will best meet the need of the church. He expects that the total cost to purchase a new computer and update the systems will be approximately $1,100.00.

The meeting was adjourned and council closed with the Lord's Prayer.

Respectfully submitted,

Susan Kral, Secretary

Nowadays I think about the hereafter often. I go into a room, I pause, and wonder what I came in here after.
