Christian Symbol

Bread — One of the oldest and most familiar foods, bread carries deep meaning throughout Scripture. In the Old Testament, God provided manna, or “bread from heaven,” to sustain His people in the wilderness. In the New Testament, Jesus declared, “I am the bread of life” (John 6:35), pointing to himself as the true source of spiritual nourishment. Bread also holds a central place in the Lord’s Supper, where it represents Christ’s body, given for us. Simple and sustaining, bread has become a lasting symbol of God’s provision, Christ’s presence, and the shared fellowship of believers.

Lutheran Sunday Service: Why We Call It the Divine Service

If you’ve ever stepped into a Lutheran church and heard someone say, “Welcome to the Divine Service,” you might’ve tilted your head a little and thought:

Divine Service?

What’s so “divine” about it?

Why not just call it worship?

That’s a good question.

In a world that’s full of noise and pressure — pressure to perform, to succeed, to always “do more” for God — the Divine Service offers something radically different.

It’s not about you climbing up to God.

It’s about God coming down to you.

That’s why we call it Divine — because the heart of this service is God serving us.

Strange idea, right? That the all-powerful Creator of the universe would serve us?

But that’s exactly what Jesus did. He said, “I came not to be served, but to serve, and to give my life.” (Mark 10:45)

In the Divine Service, that same Jesus continues to serve His people — not symbolically, not metaphorically — but in a real, present, living way.

He speaks His forgiveness to wounded, guilty people who carry regrets they can’t shake.

He washes sinners with the waters of Baptism, making them clean when nothing else could.

He feeds the hungry and the weary with His own body and blood, reminding us that salvation isn’t just a belief — it’s a gift you can taste.

He reminds us that we belong, even when the world tells us we don't.

And we respond — not out of fear, not out of duty — but with prayers, songs, and hearts that are slowly learning to rest.

- It's not a concert.
- It's not a show.
- It's not a place to prove how holy you are.
- It's a place for the tired.
- For the broken.
- For the ones who keep messing up.
- For the ones who've walked away but still hear a whisper calling them back.

The Divine Service is where Jesus meets us.

- Week after week.
- With the same grace.
- The same promises.
- The same mercy that never runs out.

So if you've never experienced it before — if "church" to you has always felt like a place where you had to perform or pretend — maybe it's time to sit down in a pew, breathe, and simply be served.

"Come, all you who are thirsty, come to the waters... Listen, that your soul may live." (Isaiah 55:1,3)

This is why we call it the Divine Service.

Because when everything else in life tells you to earn love, Jesus comes and gives it freely.

And maybe... that's exactly what you've been needing.

Hospitalized?

If you or a loved one is hospitalized, have experienced a death in the family, are home bound, or scheduled to go to the hospital, please contact Pastor Brandt (580-421-8108). Please keep in mind that privacy laws also limit the information hospitals can share with us. Pastor Brandt is available for any emergency, or any issue you and your loved ones might be having.

Our Elders: Jeff Hedberg (573-819-4446), Jeff Emery (816-745-0229) and Larry Trick (573-286-4423) will assist the pastor to follow up on any issue, not just hospitalization for you, a loved one or a death in the family.

October Devotion

Shining In Darkness

But when I hoped for good, evil came, and when I waited for light, darkness came. My inward parts are in turmoil and never still; days of affliction come to meet me. Job 30:26-27

Years ago, after completing high school, a Christian girl managed to break into the work force.

The first day of work showed her she was hardly ready to deal with the things the “real world” was going to direct her way. The lurid language of her fellow employees, the ungente jokes of her boss as well as the cruel comments made by almost everyone shocked her.

Shaken, she returned home and told her parents she wasn't going back.

Before she had finished sharing her lament, her father interrupted. It was something he seldom did. Dad asked, “Honey, where do you put a light?”

She stumbled in her one-person rant, thought for a second, and then decided to ignore what her father had asked. She continued to tell her parents about what she had endured.

Her topic-changing father asked again: “Where do you put a light?”

Exasperated, she replied, “Dad, what does that question have to do with what I’m saying? What do you mean? You put a light where it’s dark.”

“Good,” said her dad.

Making use of the break in his daughter’s litany of offenses she had endured, he quickly continued: “Honey, the Lord has put you into a place where you, a Christian, are being given the opportunity to reflect the light of Jesus. You are to shine His light into a dark place. Go to work tomorrow, and let His light be shown and shared with those folks in the darkness, so they can see Jesus. Your mother and I shall pray that their darkness will not undermine you or cause your witness of faith to flicker.”

I like Christian fathers who talk that way.

Unlike the weak and wimpy dads who are shown on TV, real

Christian fathers have wisdom, insight, and a spirit of encouragement. For example, this father knew Job was right when he had said evil and darkness come and a man’s life can be turned upside down by the cruelty of a sinful world.

But this Christian father also knew these things do not have the final word. Jesus does. That’s the fact he shared with his daughter. Then this particular father went one step further: he practiced what he was preaching; He reflected the light of the Savior into the darkness his daughter had encountered.

I have little doubt he and mom will continue to do so in the days and weeks to come. To counter and conquer the evil, the sin, the circumstance, we have been given a Savior. His perfect life, His innocent death, His victorious resurrection brings light and hope to defeat darkness and discouragement.

As dad said, “We are being given the opportunity to reflect the light of Jesus.”

God grant we do.

The Prayer: Dear Lord, life can dish out a fair share of nastiness. Enough of that stuff long enough can make things pretty dismal and dark. Grant us the grace to see and walk in the light of the Lord Jesus. Even more, dear Lord, let us share the Savior with others. In His Name, Amen.

Robert William Hansen

Our brother in Christ, Robert “Bob” William Hansen, 78, of Gravois Mills, Missouri, passed away peacefully on August 28, 2026. Bob was born on September 3, 1947, in Saginaw, Michigan, the son of Robert F. and Margie Hanna (Bellen) Hansen.

Bob proudly served his country in the United States Navy from 1966 to 1969. Following his military service, he built a life centered around his family, his work, his love of cars, fishing, and his community.

Bob worked for Caterpillar for many years before retiring. He also enjoyed building homes around the Lake of the Ozarks and took great pride in the work he did. He was a member of the Rocky Mount Lions Club and the American Legion. Bob was also a member of the Fun Cars Club, where he enjoyed attending and participating in car shows.

An avid fisherman, Bob was a Bass Pro fisherman and was involved in tournaments and enjoyed helping with booths and events for Bass Pro. Whether he was working on a home, showing off a car, fishing, or spending time with those he loved, Bob was happiest when he was surrounded by family, friends, and the activities he enjoyed.

Bob met the love of his life, Penny Jost, and the two were married on December 17, 2016. Together, they shared many wonderful years filled with love, family, and countless memories.

He will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him, and his memory will live on through the many lives he touched and the memories shared with those closest to him.

Bob is survived by his beloved wife, Penny Jost; his daughters, Edith Cimaglia (Kelly), Christine Garvis (Vincent), Kayla Kammerer (Ryan), and Kristina Bennett (Alex); his 12 grandchildren; one great-grandson; his siblings, Terry Hansen (Cathy) and Cheryl Stead (Ken); as well as several nieces and nephews, other relatives, and many dear friends.

Bob was preceded in death by his parents, Robert F. and Margie Hansen, and one brother James E. Hansen.

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. Revelation 21:4

Jayne Marie Trick is having a busy summer. She is using her God-given talent to repaint the many figures of the crèche. Here is the unveiling of a few pieces that are finished. A huge thank you to Jayne Marie for taking on this project. Photo submitted by Susan Kral.

Every One His Witness

The E in LASSIE Stands For Encourage: Be Encouraging

People want to be encouraged. Actually, they need to be encouraged. Most people are already exposed to and dealing with enough that is negative. Someone who offers encouragement is refreshing and renewing.

When you take the initiative to be encouraging, you will gain and keep people's attention and interest. You can be encouraging to people because Christ is encouraging to you.

Like everyone else, you have negative things going on in your life. But as a Christian, you also have confidence that God is working all things in your life—even the negative things - to your ultimate good.

When you're confident in God's promises, you are encouraged and can be encouraging to other people.

Extending an invitation to a person is a way of being encouraging, but it is only a starting point.

Encouragement also includes completing the invitation. The more specific the invitation to a person's interests, desires, wants, and needs, and so on, the more encouraging it will be to the person.

When you keep the invitation active by employing follow-through and follow-up techniques, you continue encouraging acceptance of the invitation.

For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, that through endurance and encouragement of the scriptures we may have hope.

May the God of endurance and encouragement grant you to live in such harmony with one another, in accord with Christ Jesus. That together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. (Romans 15:4-6)

Old Business:

- Members discussed the upcoming yard sale.

New Business:

- A reminder of the Trunk or Treat in October and encouragement to participate.
- A reminder to consider serving on the nominating committee in November for our LWML officers for the new year.

Bible Study: Bible study was titled, "The Strengths of Hannah" taken from 1 Samuel.

We closed the meeting with a prayer by President Dawn.

During and After the Meeting:

We enjoyed cake and coffee from Dawn, and delicious homemade scones by Carol Croft.

Reminder

We continue to collect items for Swaddling Clothes for the rest of the year. Place the items in the box located in the narthex.

October Meeting

Our next meeting will be held on Monday, October 12 beginning at 9 a.m. The roll call word is gracious.

In September we collected $105.32 in pocket change for Mites. Thank you for your continued support of this ongoing project. Your change can be brought to the church anytime and placed in the LWML box in the back of the church.

Cards Available For Purchase

There is a nice selection of cards available for visitors and members to purchase for $1.00 each. This is on the honor system. The display cabinet is located in the narthex.

Luther and the Bible

Reformation Day is celebrated by many Protestant churches on October 31. It commemorates the Reformation and honors leaders such as Martin Luther, whose courage and conviction helped shape church history.

Luther's life was threatened because he spoke out against practices he believed did not reflect the true mission of the Church. Forced into hiding, he found refuge at Wartburg Castle as the guest of the ruler of Saxony.

While there, Luther took on an enormous task: translating the Bible from the original languages into German. This was no simple project. At the time, Germany was made up of many regional dialects, making communication difficult from one area to another.

Luther wanted ordinary people to clearly understand God's Word. To make sure his translation used everyday language, he is said to have listened carefully to common speech, even consulting the castle's butcher for familiar expressions and wording.

Luther's translation became a tremendous gift to the German people. Not only did it place Scripture into the hands of everyday readers, but the language he used also helped unify the many German dialects. In that sense, Martin Luther is often considered one of the fathers of the modern German language.

Christian Symbol

CHRISTIAN FLAG — Dating to the early 20th century, the Christian flag represents all of Christianity, though it's been used primarily in the Americas and Africa. The red Latin cross symbolizes Jesus' blood shed on Calvary to grant us eternal life. The blue background represents Christ's faithfulness even unto death, as well as our baptism into Christ. The white field signifies Jesus' purity, nonviolence and surrender to God's will, plus the peace we gain by surrendering ourselves to Christ.

Stewardship is WORK

Why do we give? Is it simply because God commands us to? Or is there more to it? To be sure, the instruction and Word of God in the Bible says we should give, and this is sufficient to encourage us to give (Luke 6:38; Acts 20:35; 1 Cor. 16:2; 2 Cor. 8:7; Gal 6:6).

But there's more to it than just obligation. We're not just trying to fulfill a work of the Law. We are bearing fruits of the Spirit given to us by our Father in heaven through His Son our Lord Jesus Christ. In other words, we're not just doing what our Father said, we're also doing what He did.

Children emulate their parents. When they grow up they often carry many of the same mannerisms and characteristics as their parents, but there is more to it than that. Children copy their parents even on a more mundane level. They watch how their parents cross their legs, how they fold their hands, how they stand and sit and walk, how they do and say most everything.

And children try to copy it, which can be quite humorous when parents wish they wouldn't. It can be uncomfortable and embarrassing if a child copies or repeats something less than polite that they learned from a parent. Sitcoms thrive on these situations. It only happens because children emulate their parents because they want to be like them.

We are the children of God, by grace, through faith. In Holy Baptism, God the Father declares of us what He declared of Jesus at His Baptism in the Jordan: "You are my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased." God the Father claims us as His own. He takes away all our sins, and in exchange He gives us His righteousness, His purity, His holiness, and His Spirit, by which we cry out, "Abba, Father."

We are born again, born from above, born of water and the Spirit, to a new life in Christ as His children. We are sons of God in Christ, through Baptism. And since we are sons, we are heirs – heirs who share in the glory of the Son of God. The inheritance is ours because of the Father's grace and mercy, His generosity in sending His Son in time to save us for all eternity.

And this is why we give generously of our income to the work of the church. We want to be like our heavenly Father. We want to emulate His generosity by being generous ourselves. We give to the work of the Church because we have witnessed the generous giving of our Father in heaven.

More than that, we are recipients of it. It is because we have received God our Father's gifts that we desire to give ourselves. And His gifts are not just spiritual. They are temporal and earthly as well. As the Small Catechism teaches in the Fourth Petition of the Lord's Prayer: "Give us this day our daily bread." What does this mean? God certainly gives daily bread to everyone without our prayers, even to all evil people, but we pray in this petition that God would lead us to realize this and to receive our daily bread with thanksgiving. What is meant by daily bread? Daily bread includes everything that has to do with the support and needs of the body, such as food, drink, clothing, shoes, house, home, land, animals, money, goods, a devout husband or wife, devout children, devout workers, devout and faithful rulers, good government, good weather, peace, health, self-control, good reputation, good friends, faithful neighbors, and the like."

In other words, God gives us everything we need for the care of both body and soul. His generosity knows no bounds. Therefore, we sit down at the beginning of the year, the beginning of the month, or the beginning of the week to set aside a generous portion of God's daily bread for His work in the Church.

We don't do this simply because He has commanded us so to do; it is because we, as His children by grace, want to emulate His generosity in our own lives. He is our Father; we are His children. And children want to be like their parents. reprinted from the Stewardship website

Faith and works are like the light and heat of a candle; they cannot be separated.

1/2026

Council Meeting September 8, 2026

President Brock Kliever called the meeting to order at 6:30 P.M. Pastor Brandt opened with prayer.

The following board members were present: Pastor Gary Brandt, President Brock Kliever, Treasurer Peg Callahan, Secretary Susan Kral, Elder Jeff Hedberg, Evangelism Paula Emery, Stewardship Dawn Hedberg, Cemetery Diane Borgmann and Church Members Pat Callahan and Rodney Schulz Absent: Financial Secretary Brett Niebur, Vice President Noah Estes, and Trustee Chuck Kral

The minutes from the August 11, 2026 meeting were approved as printed.

Financial Secretary: Brett's written report stated the following:

- Our income statement shows that we are on budget at 67% year to date. Our expenses are showing 63% of budget year to date. Therefore, we are currently showing a surplus of $5500.00 year to date.
 - No unusual expenses are currently pending.
- The report was accepted and approved.

Treasurer's Report: Peg reported the following:

- All bills are paid.
- The McCoy family sent a thank you note to our congregation for the warm welcome they received when visiting. A donation of $100.00 was included in the note.

The report was accepted and approved.

Board of Elders: Jeff Hedberg had no report.

Trustees: Pat reported the following:

- Mowing has continued.
- Pat repaired rebar that was damaged.
- Chuck put salt in the water softener.
- Pat will fine-tune the new ice maker.

The report was accepted and approved.

Evangelism: Paula reported the following:

- Paula contacted new members regarding the new member brunch that will be held on September 13, 2026.
- Jeff Emery will move tables up to the narthex prior to the September 26th yard sale. They can be arranged outside more easily than having to bring them from downstairs.
- There will be hamburgers, hot dogs, chips, and water available for a free will offering at the yard sale.
- It was decided to hold a Trunk or Treat on October 31 from 3:00 PM to 5:00 PM. A sign-up sheet for participation will be made available. We need at least 10 cars for the event to be held.

Paula's report was accepted and approved.

Stewardship: Dawn proposed that three projects be selected for our church mission project. The council agreed that five percent of our weekly offerings be divided among the Missouri District, Medical Missions for Christ, and the Hutton missionary family in Costa Rica. Dawn's report was accepted and approved.

Member at Large: Vacant

Cemetery: Diane reported the following:

- Rodney Schulz has been watering daily due to dry conditions.
- Pastor Brandt applied for and received a Thrivent card for cemetery beautification.

- A church member made a special request regarding the burial of parents in our cemetery. The council reviewed the eligibility rules in the cemetery bylaws. It was determined that the request cannot be granted.

Diane's report was accepted and approved.

Pastor's Report: Pastor Brandt reported the following:

- A memorial service was held for Bob Hansen on September 8, 2026. He thanks everyone who comforted the family, welcomed our many guests and provided a delicious luncheon.
- On September 13, we will welcome Malissa Bassio-Haines who is transferring her membership from Christ the King. Following the service, we will welcome our new and newer members with a brunch.
- Several pastoral changes are occurring in our district. Pastor Trey Dille was installed at Christ the King on September 13. Pastor Kris Morris will be installed on October 4, 2026 at Immanuel in Honey Creek. Pastor Guillame is leaving Hope Chapel to serve a congregation in Louisiana.
- A representative from the Missouri District Office will be meeting with the pastors, the chairmen of the congregations, and the head elders of Christ the King, Hope Chapel and Peace Lutheran. The meeting will be held at Peace in the near future.
- Pastor reminded us that as he often says, "God has a plan."

Pastor's report was accepted and approved.

President's Reports

Old Business: None

New Business:

- The following offices are due for reelection: vice president, financial secretary, and Larry Trick's elder position. Dawn will approach the current office holders asking if they want to continue filling their positions.
- Peg completed a great deal of paperwork to reinstate Peace Lutheran's nonprofit corporation status with the State of Missouri. She appreciates the help from Hannah at the Bank of Versailles for her assistance in acquiring the document.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:40 P.M. Pastor led the closing with The Lord's Prayer.

Respectfully submitted,
Susan Kral, Secretary
