NOVEMBER 15 – NOVEMBER 29, 2026

May this special time bring our parish family together in faith, thanksgiving, and gratitude for the love and mercy of Jesus Christ.

All are Welcome!

THE SOULS THAT COME AT NIGHT TO ASK FOR A PRAYER

Saint Bridget of Sweden saw something that we do not see. One day, she was praying and saw purgatory. It was not like they depict it. There were thousands of souls in a fire that does not burn like that of the earth, but purifies. They cried out, but not in hatred, in hope. Because they knew they could leave. And they cried out a name: that of their living relatives.

Our Lady of Mount Carmel promised Saint Simon Stock:
"Whoever dies wearing my scapular, I will free from purgatory on the first Saturday after their death."
That's why you see her in the image holding the scapular in her hand.
It is not an amulet. It is a Mother's promise that does not forget.

The souls in purgatory are your grandfather who didn't manage to make a good confession, your aunt who passed away after a fight, that friend who died suddenly. They are not in hell, because they died in a state of grace. But they cannot enter heaven yet, because they still have love to purify.

And they cannot help themselves.
Only we can help them. With a Mass. With a Rosary. With a glass of water offered for them.

Saint Faustina recounted that one night a deceased sister came to her cell and said to her: "Pray for me." Faustina prayed the Chaplet of Mercy and instantly saw that soul rise shining to heaven.

Mondays are the day the Church dedicates to the souls. They are waiting.

If today you pray an Our Father for them, tomorrow they will pray for you when you stand before God. They never forget those who helped them.

"For the blessed souls in purgatory, grant them eternal rest, O Lord."
Amen.
