INDIA: 100,000 COVID MASKS SEWN IN ONE WEEK

The COVID shut down in India has caused a massive humanitarian crisis. Indians who leave their home without wearing a mask to gather food are beaten, fined, and possibly jailed. The Lord inspired our leadership and miraculously multiplied supplies so that 100,000 masks could be sewn in one week in India! These masks are freely distributed to all, including Indian migrant workers who are walking the roads in a desperate attempt to get back to their home villages.

RISKING MUCH FOR THE GOSPEL IN VENEZUELA

The border between Colombia and Venezuela has been officially closed for over two years. The border passes through deserts, rugged mountains, grassland prairie, and the mighty Orinoco River. This border is a safe haven to guerrilla insurgents, illegal paramilitary forces, drug traffickers, and virtually every imaginable type of smuggler. Years ago, luxury items and cheap gasoline used to flow from prosperous Venezuela into war-torn Colombia. Now, the situation has reversed as basic items including gasoline, food, and soap, flow from Colombia into devastated Venezuela. Also, there is a market for used tires and even engine oil. Food is now scarce in Venezuela that the people slice up banana peels and corn husks to make soup. An enterprising soul was even making popsicles out of lentils. Staples such as rice, sugar, and cooking oil are increasingly hard to come by. Many malnourished people are seen on the streets and medicine is scarce. The most sought for item, however, is the Bible. There have been no printings of Bibles or serious importation of Bibles for over twenty years. During the past five years, the Venezuelan church has almost tripled to well over one third of the population. Almost all of these millions of new Christians have no Bible. If this massive revival stays on track, it will change the course of history.

SCRIPTURE OF THE WEEK

Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.
And He will send His angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather together His elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.
Mathew 24:30-31 (NKJV)
