Annunciation of the Theotokos – March 25th

Heb 2:11-18

For the one who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one Father. For this reason Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters, saying, "I will proclaim your name to my brothers and sisters, in the midst of the congregation I will praise you."

And again, "I will put my trust in him."

And again, "Here am I and the children whom God has given me."

Since, therefore, the children share flesh and blood, he himself likewise shared the same things, so that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by the fear of death. For it is clear that he did not come to help angels, but the descendants of Abraham. Therefore he had to become like his brothers and sisters in every respect, so that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make a sacrifice of atonement for the sins of the people. Because he himself was tested by what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested.

On March 25th we celebrate the great feast of the Annunciation. It is the day that God announced, through the Archangel Gabriel, and the cooperation of a young Jewish virgin girl, His plan of our salvation – our freedom from Satan and sin. We cannot just celebrate the Annunciation and keep it to ourselves. Like Gabriel, we must ANNOUNCE this Good News – this Evangelion. The salvation that God brings about is for all people, regardless of their background. St. Paul tells us in Gal. 3:28: "There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ." We are all called to proclaim His salvation – to be missionaries. Archbishop Anastasios of Albania writes: "Church without mission is a contradiction in terms...A static Church which lacks a vision and a constant endeavor to proclaim the Gospel to the oikoumene could hardly be recognized as the one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church, to whom the Lord entrusted the continuation of His work." ~ Dan Christopoulos ~ <https://www.ocmc.org/annunciation-theotokos>

Troparion

Today is the beginning of our salvation, / the revelation of the eternal mystery! / The Son of God becomes the Son of the Virgin / as Gabriel announces the coming of Grace. / Together with him let us cry to the Theotokos: / Hail, O Full of Grace, / the Lord is with You!

Kontakion

O Victorious Leader of Triumphant Hosts! / We, your servants, delivered from evil, sing our grateful thanks to you, O Theotokos! / As you possess invincible might, set us free from every calamity / so that we may sing: Hail, O unwedded Bride!
