

Good evening. Please turn to Matthew Chapter 12.

Shortly we'll be looking at something regarding blasphemy of the Holy Spirit, but first I'd like to share a quick illustration:

Up 'til I was about 35 years old I thought my biological father was a commander at March Air Base who'd snuck out of an officer's ball drunk and went home and raped the baby sitter. But that turned out to be a big fat lie.

My guardians also lied to me about where I was born. This lie was so impressionable that even though the place I was really born was on my birth certificate, I couldn't see it because I was blinded by the image of the lie. Because of this I'd been trying to find my biological family for years with no success. But one day someone said... "Are You Sure you were born at Riverside Community Hospital"? So I looked at my birth certificate again and suddenly...like magic...March Air Force Base Hospital appeared. It was right there all along, but because I believed the lie I was told...I'd only been able to see the word Riverside printed twice in the city and county boxes and not the AFB Hospital printed right next to the word Riverside. That correction in my mind then sent me down a new path.

And that's how a magic spell works. If a lie is repeated enough times and you believe it, you can look at an image right in front of you and never see the true image because you have a false image in your mind.

Now if you don't mind, I'd like to show you how this works in the Bible concerning the false image of the Trinity.

Let's begin with a question and a white sheet of paper:

What's the first word you think of when I say Ghost? Anyone please?

__the departed spirit of a dead person, casper_____

Familiar Spirit Demon Devil Phantom Shadow Specter Vampire Apparition Spook

Ok now what does the word Holy mean?

__set apart, sacred, hallowed, dedicated, consecrated, sanctuary_____

Why then do you suppose King James published the phrase Holy Ghost in the Bible 89 times if it implies a "set apart spirit of a dead person"?

I call this kind of translating Word Magick!

Now Christian scholars say Ghost was a good translation for the word Spirit in the 1500's and 1600's because of what it meant at the time, but it's just not true. Since ancient times Ghost has implied that a person's spirit or soul exists separately as a disembodied spirit of a dead person.

This is the first lie of the Whispering Word Magick Serpent who said:
"You will not surely die."

So we shouldn't be calling the Holy Spirit a Ghost, because it infers that the Spirit of God is separate from God the Father who is also a dead person.

Now let's look at Matthew 12 starting at verse 31

(Matt 12.31) Therefore I say unto you, every sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy [against] the Spirit shall not be forgiven unto men. (v32) And whosoever speaks a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven him

Now in order to follow Jesus' advice here we need to know who the Holy Spirit is so we don't blaspheme this Spirit.

Did Jesus forget about the Father here?
And if so is it ok to blaspheme the father?

Let's turn to Acts 28 verse 25

Acts 28 (v25) So when they did not agree among themselves, they departed after Paul had said one word: "The Holy Spirit (HG KJV) spoke rightly through Isaiah the prophet to our fathers, (v26) "saying, 'Go to this people and say: "Hearing you will hear, and shall not understand; and seeing you shall see, and not perceive..."

Paul is quoting Isaiah 6: 9 and 10 and note that Paul says the Holy Spirit is the speaker.

So now please turn to Isaiah Chapter 6

Isaiah 6 (v1) In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lifted up, and the train of His [robe] filled the temple. (v3) And one [seraph] cried to another [seraph] and said: "Holy, holy, holy [is] the LORD of hosts; The whole earth [is] full of His glory!" (v5) So I said: "Woe [is] me, for I am undone! Because I [am] a man of unclean lips, And I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips; For my eyes have seen the King, The LORD of hosts." (v8) Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying: "Whom shall I send, And who will go for Us?" Then I said, "Here [am] I! Send me." (v9) And He said, "Go, and tell this people: 'Keep on hearing, but do not understand; Keep on seeing, but do not perceive.' (v10) "Make the heart of this people dull, And their ears heavy, And shut their eyes; Lest they see with their eyes, And hear with their ears, And understand with their heart, And return and be healed."

So Paul is saying the speaker in Isaiah 6: 9 and 10 is the Holy Spirit while Isaiah says it is Adonay—Lord in verses 1 and 8 and YHWH—Lord in verses 3 and 5.

Now one more question: So who was Jesus Father?

Would you say Joseph by proxy, or David by Seed, or God by his Spirit

If you could then please turn with me to Matthew Chapter 1 verse 18

Matthew 1 (v18) Now the birth of Jesus Christ was as follows: After His mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Spirit.

How then does anyone dare say Jesus' Father is NOT the Holy Spirit?
Praytell what spirit is more holy than God?

Now then let's go to Luke Chapter 1. We are going to start at verse 15. Luke refers to God about 60 times in Chapter 1 alone while never once actually calling God by the word Father.

Depending on your translation...as you follow you should see in V15 Lord and Holy Spirit, V16 Lord their God, V19 God (This is how a writer writes)

Now verse 30: And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for you have found favor with God. (v31) And, behold, you shall conceive in your womb, and bring forth a son, and shall call his name JESUS. (v32) He shall be great, and shall be called the son of the Highest [that's the most high in Hebrew elyown]: and the Lord God [that's Adonay YHWH Elohim our Father] shall give unto him the throne of his father David: (v33) And he shall reign over the house of Jacob forever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. (v34) Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man? (v35) And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Spirit shall come upon you, and the power of the Highest [that's the Most High] shall overshadow you: therefore also that holy [one] [child] which shall be born of you shall be called the Son of God.

Gentlemen Jesus' Father and our Father is the Holy Spirit!
I encourage you concerning our God, who is a spirit, that we must worship in spirit and truth, to honor him by seeing him as the Holy Spirit, who has a Holy Spirit, who sends and gives and shares his Holy Spirit with us, for he is the Most High faithful Holy Spirit of the Promise and hope we have in the resurrection. That is why we all say Holy Holy Holy is the Lord God Almighty
