Welcome to NBICC – Your Journey Begins Here

Message from Principal, Starla McDougall

Dear Students,

On behalf of the New Brunswick Indigenous Career College (NBICC), it is my pleasure to welcome you to our NBICC family this fall.

As you begin or continue your studies with us, know that you are not just joining a college—you are becoming part of something much greater. You are now part of a movement toward positive change, brighter futures, and stronger communities.

At NBICC, we are here to support you every step of the way, both throughout your educational journey and beyond. My commitment, and that of our entire team, is to help you succeed not only as a student but also as a future leader and contributor to your community. You will find encouragement, guidance, and a family that truly cares about your growth and well-being.

I encourage you to enjoy your time with us, embrace every opportunity to learn, and take pride in the personal and professional growth you will experience. Graduation may feel far away now, but it will come faster than you think—and when it does, you'll look back on these days as the foundation of your success.

Welcome to NBICC. I cannot wait to see how much you will grow and achieve during your time here.

With pride and respect,

Starla McDougall
Principal, New Brunswick Indigenous Career College
