

2023 NASOH Conference Program, San Diego, CA

Abstracts, affiliations, and biographical statements for speakers and presentations are available on the NASOH website at: <https://nasoh.org/conference-abstracts>

Wednesday, May 17, 2023

15:00-18:00: Registration, Wyndham Hotel

17:00-19:00: NASOH Council Meeting

Thursday, May 18, 2023

07:30-09:00: Registration, Maritime Museum of San Diego

09:00-09:30: Opening Remarks

09:30-10:40: Session 1: Orchestration of Modern Warfare

Chair: John Rodgaard, Captain USN (Ret), The 1805 Club

09:30-09:50 Larry Bartlett: For the Lack of a Base the Fleet was Lost

09:50-10:10 Michael Moir: Britain's Shipping Crisis and Canadian Trade during the Great War

10:10-10:30 Jeff Noakes: Digital Encounter: A Naval Animation at the Canadian War Museum

10:30-10:45 Q&A

10:45-11:00 Break

11:00-12:15 Session 2: Gone Fishing (Concurrent with Session 3)

Chair: Penelope K. Hardy, University of Wisconsin-La Crosse

11:00-11:20 John Jensen: The F/V Equator: A Century of Salmon and Family Tradition

11:20-11:40 Jennifer Hubbard: Bringing the Atlantic to the Pacific in Fisheries Science

11:40-12:00 Carmel Finley: How Tuna Shaped the Pacific World

12:00-12:15 Q&A

- 11:00-12:15 Session 3: Seafaring Europe and North America in the 16th Century (Concurrent with Session 2)
Chair: Carla Phillips, University of Minnesota – Twin Cities
- 11:00-11:20 Christina Bolte: “Scandals and Bad Examples”: Coronado’s Legacy and the Failure of the Luna Settlement
- 11:20-11:40 Erika Laanela: Ambition and Corruption: Diego Garcia de Palacio and Spain’s Pacific Trade
- 11:40-12:00 Christina Brooks: A Cactus across the Atlantic: Prickly Pear in 16th Century Europe
- 12:00-12:15 Q&A
- 12:15-13:30 Lunch
- 13:30-14:45 Session 4: Pacific Ocean and the Environmental Movement (Concurrent with Session 5)
Chair: B.J. Armstrong, U.S. Naval Academy
- 13:30-13:50: Ryan Tucker Jones: Soviet Whaling, Western Environmentalism, and the North Pacific Ocean Environment
- 13:50-14:10: Michael Gunther: The Pacific Origins of Postwar U.S. Environmentalism
- 14:10-14:30: Eric Rodriguez-Delgado: Measuring Climate Change Impacts to Maritime Heritage through Community-Guided Surveys
- 14:30-14:45: Q&A
- 13:30-14:45 Session 5: New Approaches to Education and Outreach (Concurrent with Session 4)
Chair: Kevin Crisman, Texas A&M University
- 13:30-13:50: Kurt Knoerl: It’s in Their Hands: Teaching African American Maritime History in Coastal Georgia
- 13:50-14:10: Jason Raupp: Modelling Maui’s Submerged WWII Training Heritage: Documentation, Education, and Outreach
- 14:10-14:30: Catherine Green: Building Bridges between Shipwreck Artifact Salvagers and Public Agencies
- 14:30-14:45: Q&A
- 14:45-15:00: Break

- 15:00-16:15: Session 6: Careers in Maritime History and Archaeology: A Roundtable Discussion
Moderator: Jason W. Smith, Southern Connecticut State University
Panelists: Alicia Caporaso, Paul Fontenoy, Penelope K. Hardy, Thomas Jamison, Jason Raupp, and Jason W. Smith
- 17:00-18:30: Reception at the Wyndham Hotel sponsored by Texas A&M Nautical Archaeology Program and Institute of Nautical Archaeology

Friday, May 19, 2023

- 07:30-09:00: Registration, Maritime Museum of San Diego
- 09:30-10:45: Session 7: The U.S. and its Asia-Pacific Relationship (Concurrent with Session 8)
Chair: Nancy Quam-Wickham, California State University, Long Beach
- 09:30-09:50: Tommy Jamison: Fu and Philo: An American in a Chinese Naval Academy, 1885-1895
- 09:50-10:10: Otis Edwards: The Lintin: An American Ship Anchoring the Canton Trade
- 10:10-10:30: Jonathan Thayer: The Specter of "Alien Seamen" in the U.S. Maritime Imagination
- 10:30-10:45: Q&A
- 09:30-10:45: Session 8: Culture, Law, and Memory (Concurrent with Session 7)
Chair: Christina Bolte, University of West Florida
- 09:30-09:50: Matthew Crow: Ancient Constitutions and Pacific History
- 09:50-10:10: Stephen Berry: "Mad Jack" and the Missionaries – Conflicting American Imperialisms
- 10:10-10:30: Coll Thrush: Everything that Comes Ashore is Mine: Shipwrecks and Sovereignties in the Graveyard of the Pacific
- 10:30-10:45: Q&A
- 10:45-11:00: Break

- 11:00-12:15: Session 9: Labor and Maritime Communities (Concurrent with Session 10)
Chair: Matthew Crow, Hobart and William Smith Colleges
- 11:00-11:20: Melissa Parchment: "Poor Doomed Souls": Tragedy in a Great Lakes Maritime Community
- 11:20-11:40: Nancy Quam-Wickham: Using Network Analysis: Reevaluating Forced Labor Recruitment in San Francisco
- 11:40-12:00: Brandon Lentz: Descent into Madness: Psychiatric Treatment of Royal Navy Personnel 1975-1815
- 12:00-12:15: Q&A
-
- 11:00-12:15: Session 10: Maritime Technologies and Adaptation (Concurrent with Session 9)
Chair: Michael Tuttle
- 11:00-11:20: Grace Tsai: 17th Century Shipboard Food: The Ship Biscuit and Salted Beef Project
- 11:20-11:40: Meagan Clyburn: Reinventing the Wheel: A Historical Analysis of Ship Steering Assemblies
- 11:40-12:00: Kimberly Breyfogle: Rudder Variation in Dutch Merchantmen of the 17th Century
- 12:00-12:15: Q&A
-
- 12:15-13:30: Lunch
-
- 13:30-14:45: Session 11: Whaling and California (Concurrent with Session 12)
Chair: Michael Toth, Texas Christian University
- 13:30-13:50: Dayan Weller: Hunting the 'Devilfish': Whaling Heritage on the Monterey Peninsula
- 13:50-14:10: Michael Toth: Necessary Blood Gold: Whaling in the Development of American Society
- 14:10-14:30: Steve Wright: Drakes Bay, California: A Cultural, Political, Maritime, and Commercial Confluence
- 14:30-14:45: Q&A
-
- 13:30-14:45: Session 12: Archaeological Heritage (Concurrent with Session 11)
Chair: Alicia Caporaso

- 13:30-13:50: Kevin Crisman, George Schwarz, Carolyn Kennedy, and Christopher Sabick: Problems and Solution: The Archaeology of Early Steamboat Technologies
- 13:50-14:10: George Schwarz: Perry's Revenge: Archaeological Investigations of an Early U.S. Navy Schooner
- 14:10-14:30: William Sassorossi: Cataloging Submerged Historic Properties and Precontact Sites in Alaska
- 14:30-14:45: Q&A
- 15:00 Bus Departs for Scripps
- 16:00-18:00: Reception at Scripps sponsored by Scripps Center for Marine Archaeology

Saturday, May 20, 2023

- 07:30-09:00: Registration, Maritime Museum of San Diego
- 09:00-10:00: NASOH Annual Business Meeting
- 10:30-11:30: Cruise
- The harbor tour will be on the Maritime Museum's Swift Boat and Pilot Boat, each of which can only accommodate 25 people. Therefore, the first 50 people who sign up for the harbor tour at the registration desk in San Diego will be able to attend. If necessary, there will be a waiting list.
- 12:00-13:30: Lunch
- 13:30-15:00: Session 13: The U.S. Navy and the Expansion of American Empire in the Nineteenth Century
- Chair: Gene Smith, U.S. Naval Academy and Texas Christian University
- 13:30-13:50: Anthony Peebler: Americanizing Alaska: The U.S. Navy and Revenue-Marine in Alaskan Waters, 1867-1899
- 13:50-14:10: Christopher Costello: Savages in Paradise: American Sailors and the Shaping of the Nineteenth Century Pacific
- 14:10-14:30: Roger Bailey: Matthew Fontaine Maury, Filibuster
- 14:30-15:00: Michael Verney: Commentator and Q&A

Evening:       Dinner and Awards