

Wednesday, July 7th

2:00-4:00pm, Registration, Museum of Commerce, Historic Trust

7:00-9:00pm, NASOH Board Meeting, Holiday Inn Express,

Thursday, July 8th

9:00-4:00, Registration, Museum of Commerce, Historic Trust

9:30-4:00, Sessions, Bowden Building Classrooms

4:30-6:30, Reception, FPAN

6:30-9:30, Poker Run

Friday, July 9th

9:00-4:00, Registration, Front Lobby Voices

9:30-4:00, Sessions, Bowden Building Classrooms and Voices

4:00-6:00, Awards Banquet

Saturday, July 10th

9:00-11:00, Registration, Front Lobby Voices

9:30-11:00, Sessions, Bowden Building Classrooms and Voices

11:00-12:00 NASOH Business Meeting

1:00-4:00 Pensacola Ferry, Blue Angels cruise.

THURSDAY: Room A, Bowden Building

9:30-10:45, Symposium: Science and the Sea (sponsored by the International Commission of the History of Oceanography).

Margaret Stack, Chair (Mixed)

a. Jennifer Hubbard, Ryerson University, "Red Tide! Canadian Atlantic Marine Science and the Global Issue of Paralytic Shellfish Poisoning" (In Person)

b. Christine Keiner, Rochester Institute of Technology, "Humboldt and the Unbuilt Central American Canal" (Virtual)

c. Penelope K. Hardy, University of Wisconsin-La Crosse, "From Swab to Scientific Instrument: A Case Study in Naval/Naturalist Cooperation" (Virtual)

d. Derek Lee Nelson, Independent Scholar, "'Is the Port of New York In Danger?': Shipworms and the Professionalization of Marine Woodborer Research and Prevention, 1920-1950" (Virtual)

10:45-11:00 Break

11:00-12:15 Ironclads (mixed)

a. Hughes, Dwight. Independent Scholar. "An Ironclad Connection: The Heritage of the USS Monitor." (In person)

b. Stack, Margaret. University of Connecticut. "A Tale of Two Legal Systems: The Civil and Naval Trials of Alexander Slidell Mackenzie and the Court of Public Opinion." (No decision)

c. Jordan, Michael. Independent Scholar. "Raising the CSS Georgia the First Time: Solving a 19th-Century Shipwreck Salvage Mystery." (Virtual)

12:15-1:15 Lunch

1:15-2:30, Piracy, crime and witchcraft (Totally in-person)

Moderator: Cori Convertito

a. Cragg, Jess. Historic Trust, "Squad Goals: The West Indies Squadron and Suppression of Piracy in the Early Republic." (In person)

b. Cragg, Jess. Historic Trust, and Michael Thomin, FPAN. "Sail Bags and Black Flags: Identifying Material Culture of 19-th Century Pirates." (In Person)

c. Grubbs, Kevin. University of Southern Mississippi. "Crime on the Margin: The Limits of Imperial Authority in the Caribbean Port Cities, 1850-1900." (in Person)

d. Schaffer, Benjamin. University of New Hampshire. "The Sloop Mary: The Story of How One 17-Century Massachusetts naval Vessel Navigated the Golden Age of Piracy, the Glorious Revolution, the Salem Witchcraft Trials and the Imperial War." (In Person)

2:30-2:45 Break

2:45-4:00 Blockade Runners, Ports and Confederate Cotton...Oh My! Investigations into Confederate Trade and Shipping within the Gulf of Mexico. (virtual)

Moderator: Dwight Hughes

- a. Galloso, Robin. Texas A&M, "Archaeological History of a South Texas Port." (virtual)
- b. Benard, Samantha, ECU. "Life and Times of the Civil War Blockade Runner Rob Roy." (virtual)
- c. Guterrez, Miguel, Audubon Field Solutions, "Cotton the Middle of an Economic Struggle: Brownsville, Texas and the American" (virtual)

THURSDAY: Room B

9:30-10:45, Maritime Landscapes (in person))

- a. Oerters, Rikki. UWF. "Maritime Culture, Bathymetry, and the Emanuel Point Shipwrecks in Pensacola Bay." (In person)
- b. Broadwater, John. JRS Exploration, Inc. "Redifining a Battlefield Landscape: The Significance of Naval Aspects of the Siege of Yorktown, 1781." (in person)
- c. Chiarappa, Michael. Quinnipiac University. "Portraying the Maritime Landscape: Photography and the Shaping of the Delaware Bay's Environmental Identity." (No sure yet)

10:45-11:00 Break

11:00- 12:15, What can maritime history do for you? (virtual)

- a. Rozwadowski, Helen. University of Connecticut. "Oceans in Three Paradoxes." (virtual)
- b. McCahey, Daniella. Texas Tech University. "Ocean Empire: The Case of South Georgia" (virtual)
- c. Paine, Lincoln. University of Maine School of Law. "Historicizing Maritime Law." (virtual)

12:15-1:15 Lunch

1:15-2:30, Marine Navigational Practice Before, During and After the Age of Discovery,

Moderator, John B. Hattendorf, United States Naval War College (in person)

- a. Timothy S. Wolters, Iowa State University, Compasses, Charts, Sandglasses, and Written Aids: Medieval Mariners and Their Navigational Instruments. (In person)

b. Jason W. Smith, Southern Connecticut State University, Navigation Acts: Seamanship, Nature, and American Nationalism in the Antarctic (In person)

c. Margaret Schotte, York University, "The Persistence of Traditional Mathematics in Early Modern Navigation." (virtual)

2:30-2:45 Break

2:45- 4:00: Roundtable: Teaching Naval History: The Class of 1957 Professors at USNA

BJ Armstrong, U.S. Naval Academy (Moderator?)

David Winkler, U.S. Naval Academy Class of '57 Chair

Gene Smith, Texas Christian University (in person)

William Trimble, Auburn University (in person)

Mark Folse, U.S. Naval Academy Class of '57 Fellow

Scott Mobley, University of Wisconsin-Madison

Friday: Room A

9:30-10:45: The Maritime Cultural Landscape of the Tristán de Luna Settlement and Shipwrecks, Chair, Christina Bolte (in person)

a. Worth, John, UWF, Two Years at a Doomed Spanish Colonial Port: The Maritime Cultural Landscape of the Luna Settlement (in person)

b. Boren, Courtney, UWF, "Maritime Connections through the Native American Landscape at the Bay of Ochuse" (in person)

c. Bolte, Christina, UWF, Transplantation of a New Spanish Colonial Culture and the Maritime Cultural Landscape of the 1559-1561 Tristán de Luna Expedition. (in person)

d. Jolly, Hillary, UWF, "Prehistoric Transitional Communities and the Reuse of Coastal Landscapes on Pensacola Bay. (in person)

10:45-11:00 Break

11:00-12:15, Symposium: The Maritime Cultural Landscape of the Tristán de Luna Settlement and Shipwrecks, Part II, Chair, Greg Cook, UWF (in person)

a. Cook, Greg, UWF, "Updates on the Maritime Archaeology of the 1559 Emanuel Point Shipwrecks: The Submerged Remnants of a Spanish Colonial Maritime Landscape" (in person)

b. Ganas, Kate, UWF, "New Insights on the identity of the Vessels of the Luna Expedition." (in person)

c. Mumford, Megan and Janel Lloyd, UWF, "Comparison of Luna Settlement and Shipwrecks Material Culture". (in person)

12:15-1:15 Lunch

1:15-2:30, Symposium: The Maritime Cultural Landscape of the Tristán de Luna Settlement and Shipwrecks, Part III. Chair, John Bratten (Mixed)

a. Mateja, Cyndal, UWF, "Soldiers, Sailors, and Civilians: Charting Patterns of Communal Cooking Across the Luna Settlement." (Virtual)

b. Gazaway, James, UWF, "Maritime and Terrestrial Military Artifacts from the Luna Settlement and Fleet of 1559: Armor from the Emanuel Point I Shipwreck" (in person)

c. Bratten, John, UWF, "Elemental Mercury Recovered from the 1559 Luna Shipwrecks: Usage and Origin" (in person)

d. Sadler, Cassandra, UWF, "Spain's Golden Tupperware: A Historical Analysis of Iberian Pez Production and Atlantic Trade in the Sixteenth Century" (Virtual)

2:30-2:45 Break

2:45-4:00, Symposium: The Maritime Cultural Landscape of the Tristán de Luna Settlement and Shipwrecks, Part IV, Chair, John Worth (in person)

a. Miller Wolf, Katherine, Christina Bolte and John Worth, UWF, "A Hypothetical Bioarchaeological Reconstruction of the Fate of the 1559-1561 Luna Settlement People." (in person)

b. Hermann, Brandon, UWF, "A Tale of Personal Discovery: A Comparative Analysis of the Emanuel Point, Padre Island, and Santa Clara Shipwrecks (1554-1564)." (in person)

c. Benchley, Elizabeth, Warren Carruth, Danielle Mount, and Jennifer Melcher, UWF, "The Maritime Landscape of Emanuel Point." (in person)

Friday: Room B

9:30-10:45, Roundtable, Publishing in Maritime and Naval History (mixed)

Jason Smith, (in person)

Gene Smith, (in person)

Anna Holloway, (undecided)

Lincoln Paine, (virtual)

10:45-11:00 Break

11:00-12:15, Slave Trade and international connections (mixed)

Moderator: Erin Stone, UWF

a. Beeler, John. University of Alabama, "Britain, Spain, the United States and the Cuban Slave Trade During the American Civil War, 1861-1865." (In person)

b. Earle, Blake. Texas A&M University, "The Africa Squadron and Antebellum American Foreign Relations." (in person)

c. Bailey, Roger, University of Maryland, "'A Free Republic, Like Our Own,' The US Navy and the Founding of Liberia." (virtual)

d. Brooks, Carrisa, Texas A&M, "Breadfruit and Botanical Gardens in West Indies as a Tool of British Environmental Imperialism in the 18th Century."

12:15-1:15 Lunch

1:15-2:30, Gender at sea (in person)

Moderator: Michael Tuttle

a. Jensen, John. UWF, "Opportunities Afloat: Sailing Women on the Great Lakes and the History of Domestic labor in the United States, 1870-1910." (in person)

b. Toth, Michael. TCU, "Whalers and Whale Ships: A Culture of Violence." (in person)

c. Haley, Heather. Auburn University, "Unsuitable and Incompatible: Ensign Vernon 'Copy' Berg, Bisexuality and the Cold War U.S. Navy." (in person)

d. Peebler, Tony. TCU, "Captains, Missionaries and Merchants: The Influence of U.S. Naval Officers on the American Community in Hawaii: 1826-1843." (in Person)

2:30-2:45 Break

2:45-4:00, Labor at sea and on land (mixed)

Moderator: John Jensen

a. Falcon, Gregory. Chapman University. "Four Fathoms Below: Exploring Below-Deck Navy Sailors During World War II." (in person)

b. Jarvis, Charlotte. Texas A&M University. "Superstitious Seadogs and Logical Landlubbers: The Scientific Revolution at Sea."(in Person)

c. Klein, Marti. "Master Blockhead Goes to Sea: A Glimpse Into the Experiences of Midshipman Frederick Marryat." (virtual)

d. Feehan, James. UWF. "The Boom of Shipbuilding in Pensacola During World War I and its Effect on Workers' Occupational Safety." (virtual)

FRIDAY: Room C

9:30-10:45, , Naval History and Education (mixed)

Moderator: John Beeler

Mercagliano, Sal. "American Naval Expeditionary Forces-Learning on the Fly." (in person)

Steele, Chuck. "Ethos: Education's Adversary" (in person)

Moretz, Joseph. "The Other Side of Naval Education: The Attendance of Army and Air Force Officers at the Royal Naval Staff College, 1919-1939." (in person)

Kohnen, David. "A Vague Feeling of Contempt for the Past-Naval Professional Education, Historical Ignorance, and the Future of the U.S. Navy." (virtual)

10:45-11:00 Break

11:00-12:15, Maritime Preservation and Memory (mixed)

a. Gifford, Daniel, "The Whaling Bark Progress and the Failure of Whaling's Memorialization in the White City." (virtual)

b. Wilhelm, Chris. College of Coastal Georgia, "Marine Preservation and the Expansion of Pelican Island Wildlife Refuge." (virtual)

c. Sheehan, Maeve, Columbia University, "Collecting Life Histories On The Shores of The Chesapeake Bay: A Case Study of How One Maritime Museum Started an Audio Archive of Interviews with Locals, (done by locals)."

d. Eckroth, Carrisa, University of Evansville, "Jurisdiction in Maritime Archaeology." (in person)

12:15-1:15 Lunch

1:15-2:30, Gulf Coast maritime history (in person)

Moderator: Jamin Wells

a. Plummer, Jane, TCU, "Gateways to the Gulf: How the Waterways Mapped the Gulf South." (in person)

b. Sledge, John, City of Mobile, "The Gulf Coast: A Maritime History." (in person)

c. Beck, Monica. UWF, and William Lees, FPAN. "The 'River God' has Again Risen...': The River Shipping Network of an Apalachicola and Cotton Factor." (in person)

d. Nash, Alexandria. University of West Florida. "Pensacola's Red Light District" (in person)

2:30-2:45 Break

2:45-4:00, Military (in person?)

Marolda, Edward, "Tempest in the Navy Department: Theodore Roosevelt as Assistant Secretary of the Navy." (in person)

Thiesen, William. USCG, "Revenue Cutter Bear" The Coast Guard Symbol" (in person)

Casserley, Tane, NOAA, "American's Forgotten World War II Battlefield" (in person)

Zimmerman, David, University of Victoria, "'For the Want of a Single Gun the West Coast will be Lost:' The Defence of Canada's Pacific Waters in the Early Cold War." (undecided)

SATURDAY: Room A

9:30-10:45, Limits of power in naval and maritime frontiers (in person)

Moderator: Rodgaard, John, Cpt. USN (ret) Moderator. (in person)

Cavel, Sam. Louisiana State University. "Royal Navy Prizes, Vice-Admiralty Courts, and the Limits of State Power in the West India Colonies, 1803-1815." (in person)

Johnson, Kenneth. Air University. "The Far Side of the World: French Naval Operations in the Indian Ocean, 1804-1810." (in person)

Convertito, Cori. Key West Art and Historical Society. "Suppressing Piracy on the Frontier-Commodore David Porter and his Mosquito Fleet." (in person)

10:45-11:00 Break

11:00-12:00, NASOH Business Meeting

SATURDAY: Room B

9:30-10:45 International Aspects of Maritime History(mixed)

a. Fontenoy, Paul. Building the first "Great Wall at Sea:" Imperial China and Mercenary Squadrons. (in person)

b. Meenu, Rabeca, University of Sanskrit, "Reimagining Indian Ocean: Crossings in the Ocean-a Transtemporal Approach." (virtual)

c. Ganguly, Aratrika, University of Calcutta, "Kala Pani and Jahaji Mates: A Study in External Indentured Coolie System." (virtual)

d. Horrell, Christopher

10:45-11:00 Break

SATURDAY: Room C

9:30-10:45, The Nature of Seafaring: Bridging Environmental and Maritime Histories (Virtual)

Sundberg, Adam. Creighton University. "Unexpected Agency in the Age of Sail: Shipworms in Maritime Ecology." (virtual)

Fraga, Sean. University of Southern California. "Whistling in the Dark: Steamboat Pilots and Navigational Labor in Puget Sound, 1870-1920." (virtual)

Maggard, Alicia. Auburn University. "Steaming Coal: Energy History, Maritime History and the Politics of Fuel." (Virtual)

10:45-11:00 Break