TRICHY BECKONS

Trichy has been witnessing a spurt in real estate growth for some time now. Much of this steady growth can be attributed to the increasing number of investors from outside the city and state

Among the Tier-II cities in Tamil Nadu, Trichy ranks only second to Coimbatore in terms of real estate growth. While indigenous investment is substantial, it is perhaps the large proportion of investors from across the country and the world that fuels the city's burgeoning realty sector. For those who live in Trichy, the city obviously has its charm. But they are not the only ones who are in favour of investing in the city. People from across the world are considering Trichy when it comes to real estate investment. And looking at how the city has evolved over the years, it is no wonder. Krishnan Natarajan, a retired United Nations official, who currently lives in Chennai, is of the
