The “More in 2024” Prayer

Praised be Jesus Christ, now and forever.

Lord, In 2024, I ask You for MORE.

More Loving God.

More Loving my neighbor.

More alone time with Jesus.

More leaning on the Lord and not on my own understanding.

More asking, seeking, and receiving what the Lord desires for me.

More trusting God.

More adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

More letting Jesus love me.

More being molded into His image and less into the image of the world.

More bringing Jesus to everyone I meet.

More being used as an instrument to help others come back to God.

More storing treasures in Heaven rather than on earth.

More saying YES to the Lord and saying NO to the fading material things of the world.

More consuming Jesus in the Eucharist so He may consume me and make me more like Him.

More forgiveness.

More quiet so I can hear God’s still small voice.

More letting God heal what the world has broken in me.

More peace-making.
More of Him and Less of me.
More creating room in my life for Jesus.
More recognizing God working in my life.
More prayer for others.
More service in His name.
More giving, for I can never outgive God.
More using my time, talents, and treasures so God can multiply them.
for His glory.
More giving God the credit.
More being in the Word.
More to Jesus through Mary.
More having child-like faith.
More letting Jesus into the places I have resisted His Love.
More asking for His healing.
More renewal.
More Christian unity.
More being baptized in the Holy Spirit.
More being His child.
More releasing of His Spirit in me.
More experiencing His presence and power in my life.
More being able to love as He loves.

More discovering the gifts You have given me to use them for the good of the Church.

More building His kingdom here.

More letting the Joy of the Lord be my strength.

More carrying my crosses instead of dragging them.

More praising God through the storms and trials.

More remembering that we are an Easter people and Alleluia is our song.

More daily examination of conscience.

More of what makes me holy instead of happy.

More learning my faith.

More reading about the lives of the Saints.

More undeservedly receiving his mercy and grace in the Sacrament of Confession.

More realizing Jesus will not relent until He has my whole heart.

More honoring my Mother and Father.

More renewal.

More praying home the souls in purgatory.

More Christian unity.

More being baptized in the Holy Spirit.

More being his child.

More releasing of His Spirit within me.

More experiencing His presence and power in my life.

More being able to love as He loves.

More asking for the intercession of all our Holy Men and Women in Heaven.

More thanking God for...everything.

More loving the difficult-to-love.

More virtue building.

More agape love.

More loving our Blessed Virgin Mary.

More asking my Guardian Angel to light and guard my life.

More rosaries to save this sin-sick world.

More vocations.

More singing of the Goodness of God.

More speaking the truth in love.

More willing the good of another.

More letting God lead me through the fire.

More letting go and letting God.

More letting God prune and take away what is dead.

More redemption.

More casting my worries and cares upon the Lord.

More planting seeds of faith and asking the Holy Spirit to water them.

More thanking God for sending his son, Jesus, to die for me.

More living out my baptismal promises.

More unwrapping and using the Gifts of the Holy Spirit.
More living not like life is short, but that eternity is forever.
More respecting when God closes doors in my life.
More letting God open new doors.
More of our hearts burning within us.

Lord in 2024, Let it Rain. Open the Floodgates of Heaven.

I ask all these things in Jesus' Mighty Name.

Amen.
