At the Massillon Richemond Foundation, we are deeply concerned about the social instability and political unrest shaking Haiti, a country where the collapse of governmental structures has severely undermined society.

With schools barely operational and a shortage of qualified teachers, the educational system has almost disintegrated, leaving countless children, including the students of the Massillon Foundation—at risk of being deprived of their right to education. This educational crisis not only diminishes academic performance but also jeopardizes our fundamental mission of keeping every child in school.

We are closely monitoring these developments, express our sincere gratitude to our supporters, and call on the Haitian government to respect the fundamental rights to life, freedom, and education for all.

Dear Friends and Supporters,

I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to each of you for your invaluable support throughout the challenging 2022–2023 academic year in Haiti. Despite growing insecurity and the lack of adequate support from public institutions, our determined students persevered. Their resilience is made possible because of your unwavering commitment to our mission.

Education is a universal human right, and it remains our highest priority to provide financial assistance to talented yet disadvantaged children in rural Haiti. Your generous contributions have enabled us to offer these children access to quality education and the opportunity to reach their full potential.

As we look ahead to the 2023–2024 academic year, we remain hopeful and resolute. Your continued passion and support are essential to our success, and we invite you to remain part of this vital work—changing lives through education.

If you would like to sponsor a child and contribute directly to their education, please visit massillonfoundationeducation.org/sponsor. Every contribution, regardless of size, plays a critical role in building a brighter future for these young minds.

Once again, thank you from the bottom of my heart for your steadfast dedication and generosity. Together, we are empowering the future generation of Haiti.

With sincere appreciation,

Marie F. Richemond
