What We Offer

Bookmark calligraphy

Bookmark calligraphy is a beautiful and creative way to enhance bookmarks, making them not only functional but also works of art. Calligraphy refers to the art of elegant handwriting, and when applied to bookmarks, it elevates the aesthetic appeal of a simple reading accessory.

Tar artist

Health Benefits: Playing drums can have therapeutic effects, promoting physical coordination, concentration, and stress relief. Drumming has been used in various therapeutic settings, including music therapy.

Face painting

Face painting is a fun and creative activity that involves applying cosmetics or paint to someone's face to create artistic designs. It's popular at events like carnivals, festivals, birthday parties, and Halloween.

Calligraphy

Calligraphy celebrates the beauty of the written word and continues to evolve, blending traditional methods with modern design trends.

Falcon show

Falconry, the art of training and hunting with birds of prey, often includes live demonstrations where audiences can see these magnificent birds in action.

POT calligraphy

Pot calligraphy could refer to the art of creating decorative lettering on pottery or ceramics. This form of calligraphy combines the traditional techniques of writing with the craftsmanship of pottery, resulting in beautifully designed pieces.

Henna Artist

Henna artists create temporary designs on the skin using henna paste, a natural dye extracted from the Lawsonia inermis plant. They work with clients to design custom henna pieces, which can range from simple patterns to intricate artwork.

Roaming Band

In a musical context, a "roaming band" may refer to a group of musicians who perform in various locations rather than being tied to a single venue. This could include street performers, festival bands, or artists who tour and play in different cities.

UEFA Champions

The UEFA Champions League is one of the most prestigious club football (soccer) tournaments in the world. Organized annually by the Union of European Football Associations (UEFA), it features top-division European clubs competing in a knockout format
