"Attorney Dan Dyess's Nottoway Plantation: Natchitoches Preservationist's Vision Lost to Fire"

Nottoway Plantation, located in White Castle, Louisiana, was the largest antebellum mansion in the South until it was destroyed by fire on May 15, 2025. Built in 1859, this 53,000-square-foot mansion features Greek Revival and Italianate architecture, symbolizing both architectural grandeur and the horrific history of chattel slavery. Attorney Dan Dyess, a preservationist from Natchitoches, acquired Nottoway in late 2024 from the estate of Jaeger. Dyess, who also owns the Steel Magnolia House Bed and Breakfast, aimed to preserve the mansion's history while enhancing it as a venue for events and tourism. His plans included making structural repairs, reopening the restaurant, and hosting cultural events. However, on May 15, 2025, a fire—believed to have been caused by an electrical issue—started in the south wing and ultimately destroyed the main house. Dyess expressed his devastation but intends to evaluate rebuilding in the coming weeks, recognizing the site's economic importance to Iberville Parish and its complex historical legacy.

In a statement, Dyess said, "I take this position — we are non-racist people. I am a lawyer, and my wife is a judge. We believe in equal opportunity rights for everyone, total equality, and fairness. My wife and I had nothing to do with slavery, but we acknowledge its wrongness. We are trying to make this a better place. We have no interest in left-wing radical ideas. We need to move forward positively and won't dwell on past racial injustice."

Youth Volunteer Summer Service Grant 2025

Funding for the Youth Volunteer Summer Service Program gives our youngest community members more opportunities to become engaged in their communities and make volunteerism a lifelong habit.

It is with great pleasure to announce that Morning Star Baptist Church is a recipient of the Youth Volunteer Summer Service Grant for 2025. Youth Volunteer Corps (YVC) is a network of affiliated organizations across the U.S. and Canada running the same program by engaging youth ages 11-18 in team-based, structured, diverse, and flexible service-learning opportunities. This program is offered to students in 7th- 12th grades to engage in volunteer opportunities. The four fundamental goals of YVC are to:

1. Engage teams of youth in volunteer service projects that are challenging, rewarding, and educational.
2. Serve the needs of the community.
3. Promote a greater understanding and appreciation for diversity in their community.
4. Inspire youth to a lifetime ethic of service.

During YVC meetings, students discuss and identify needs that are unique to their individual communities and plan service projects to address those needs. The YVC allows students a fun and convenient way to accrue service hours to receive the Community Service Diploma Endorsement offered by the Louisiana Department of Education.

YVC affiliates are hosted by credible nonprofit organizations or are independent YVC programs. Each YVC program looks a little different depending on the host organization and the local community, but they all implement the same program model and receive ongoing support and resources from YVC Headquarters.

This project is funded by a Youth Volunteer Summer Service Grant from The Rapides Foundation, and Morning Star Baptist Church has been awarded $5,000 over four months beginning May 1, 2025, and ending August 31, 2025.

For more details about the program and how to sign up you can follow us on Facebook@morningstar.170 and check our website at <https://morningstar170.churchtrac.com>. You can also feel free to reach out with any initial questions or to express interest at Morningstarbaptistchurch170@gmail.com or contact Mrs. Monique Sarpy or Mrs. Cynthia Robinson at 318-471-5782.

Outpatient Medical Center's Mental Health Fair

On Saturday, May 10, 2025, Outpatient Medical Center (OMC) hosted a successful Mental Health Fair, in partnership with the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Inc. and the Natchitoches Parish School Board. This event hosted a variety of community health partners who serve the mental health needs of Natchitoches and surrounding areas. The event was held in OMC's parking lot, which offered free screenings, resources, and interactive workshops, helping to break down stigma and connect individuals with vital mental health services. Organizations represented include Aware 2 – Natchitoches Parish School Board, Big Brothers / Big Sisters of Natchitoches, Brentwood, Cane River Community Counseling, Community Counseling Center, Cultured Therapy, Jeter Therapy, Mended Mental Health, March of Dimes, Natchitoches Behavioral Health Clinic, Natchitoches Fire Department, Natchitoches Police Department, Natchitoches Parish School Board, Touch of Grace, Voices of Autism, and Unlimited Alternatives to Changes.

Participants were thrilled to see such a strong turnout and deeply grateful to everyone who participated, volunteered, and shared in the mission of fostering a healthier, more informed community. CMO, Dr. Mark Guidry, said, "OMC looks forward to an annual event that brings together resources to address mental health needs in our community."

Justin Roberson: Natchitoches' Own Shines on the International Basketball Stage

Parents: Gary Roberson Sr. and Melissa Payton

Natchitoches, LA: Justin Roberson, a 5'11" shooting guard from Natchitoches, has gained international recognition as a key player for BC Samara in Russia's VTB United League. His journey embodies grit and talent, starting on local courts and progressing to a successful college career at the University of Louisiana at Monroe (ULM), where he earned accolades, including the 2015-16 Sun Belt Conference Defensive Student-Athlete of the Year. After college, Roberson played in Switzerland, Russia, and the USA, notably tying his career-high of 29 points with Fribourg Olympic and achieving standout defensive performances with Parma. "Playing overseas is tough, but Natchitoches taught me to stay grounded," he said. Back home, he's an inspiration for local youth, showcasing that dreams can come true. His recent season with BC Samara further solidified his reputation, as he averages double-digit points while leading in defensive plays. "Every time I step on the court, I'm carrying Natchitoches with me," Roberson states, making him a symbol of perseverance for his community. For more on his career stats, visit www.proballers.com or www.eurobasket.com.

Pamela Courtney has three loves: writing, teaching, and music. She combined her loves to create MyLMNOP, a literacy and music program for early learners. A Season for Fishin': A Fish Fry Tradition is her debut. She lives in Natchitoches, Louisiana, where she homeschools her nephews.

Book Details

A Season for Fishin' is a joyous debut picture book by Pamela Courtney full of fishing, summertime traditions, and delicious food, inspired by the author's intergenerational and multicultural Louisiana upbringing.

*There's a rush in the water.
Ripples sway,
back and forth,
back and forth.
Sounds like Fish Fry Friday.*

On the first Fish Fry Friday of the year, Cher wakes before sunrise. It's the start of the fishing season, and her wish is coming true: She's finally big enough to join her papere on Ol' Cane River! She can't wait to catch a mess of bream for Mamere to fry up for the evening feast.

Fishing pole in hand, Cher races to the prized spot down on Ol' Cane River. Wrigglers wiggle on the line. Cousins giggle as a sign of approval as Cher reels in batch after batch of bream. But when things don't go as planned, Cher learns the true importance of Fish Fry Friday, and it's not the big catch . . .

Kinfolk gather.*
Cher is part of tradition. It's her season of fishin'.

Who Killed K’ya Pier?

A Mother Seeks the Public’s Help
(names omitted for legal reasons)

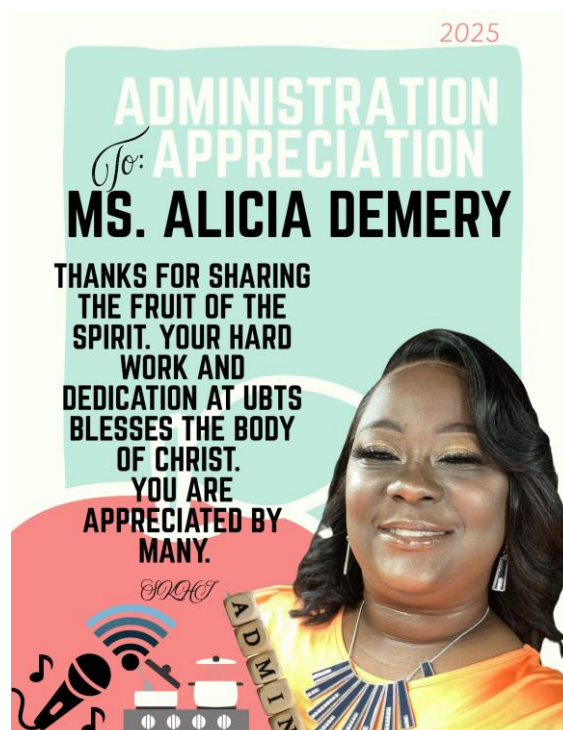

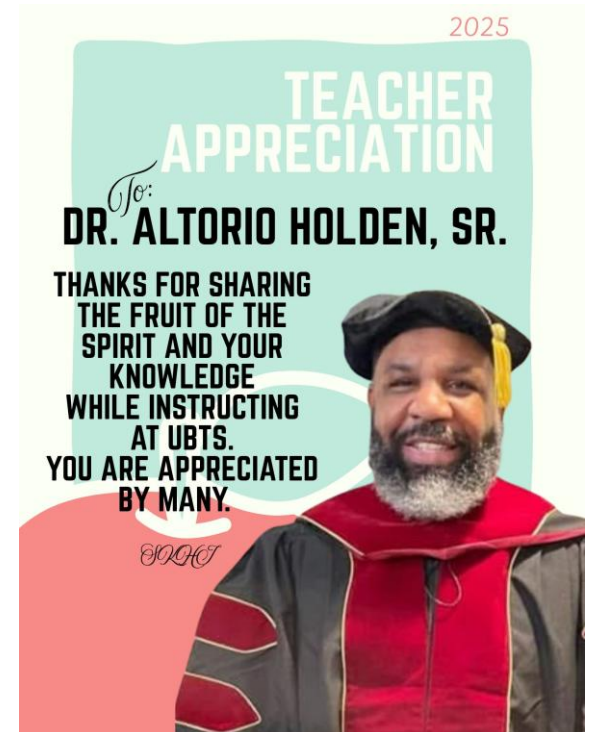

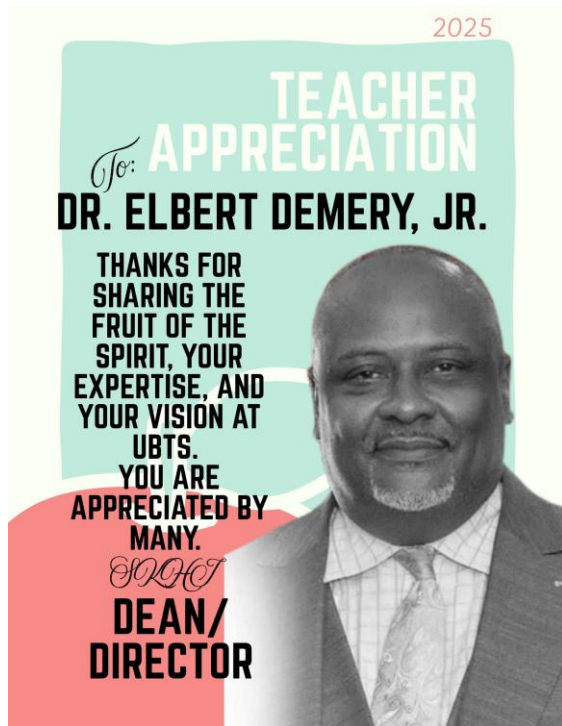

My name is Tyrongala Pier, and I am seeking justice for my daughter, K’ya Pier. She was last seen on April 17, 2018, the same day as her son Dy’Kyrus’ birthday. She was picked up from Carter’s trailer park in Natchitoches, and that was the last time she was seen. K’ya was found deceased on May 16. If anyone has any information about where they took her or where she might have been dropped off, don’t hesitate to get in touch with me or the police at (318)352-8101, the NPSO Criminal Investigations Division at (318)357-7830, or Natchitoches Crime Stoppers at (318)238-2388. There are people who love her dearly, including her son and family, and we will not stop until we get justice for K’ya. We need the public’s help; no piece of information is too big or too small. Every detail can help us in our quest for justice. Thank you, and God bless.

UBTS (United Baptist Theological Seminary) Natchitoches Campus Appreciation Acknowledgement

A UBTS student would like to thank her teachers and staff for embodying the Fruit of the Spirit. Their genuine credibility, spiritual insight, warmth, support, and helpful guidance have been invaluable throughout her first semester. Thank you for being so dedicated to the school and the community.

The Emma Robinson Williams Education Foundation, Inc. continues to live out its mission of empowering communities through education and literacy. We are honored to announce that we have been awarded a grant by the Louisiana Endowment for the Humanities (LEH) on behalf of the Prime Time team.

We are thrilled to host two impactful programs in Fall 2025:

Prime Time Preschool at Mt. Olive Baptist Church in Shreveport, LA, and Prime Time Family Literacy at Asbury United Methodist Church in Natchitoches, LA.

These programs are designed to deliver high-quality, humanities-based literacy and family engagement opportunities to our communities. We look forward to partnering with LEH to inspire a lifelong love of learning and reading in the families we serve.

Artists sought for 2025 Christmas Festival Poster

NATCHITOCHES – Artists are being sought to design the 2025 Natchitoches Christmas Festival Poster, commemorating the 99th year of the beloved festival. The theme for the poster is “Christmas in Natchitoches.” Artists who would like to enter the contest should submit a drawing or painting to the Natchitoches Arts Council using the chosen theme. The size of the completed sketch or painting should be 18 inches wide and 24 inches tall. If chosen, the painting will become the exclusive property of the Natchitoches Arts Council. The chosen artist will receive a commission of $600.

The deadline for entering the competition is Friday, August 1, 2025. All entries should be submitted to The Office of Community Development, 420 Fourth Street, Natchitoches, LA 71457. The Natchitoches Arts Council is not responsible for insuring the safe or timely delivery of the artwork to the appropriate party. We do reserve the right to refuse any submissions and to extend the deadline. Numbered prints in the form of a poster will be available and on sale to the public in October. All posters are $35 each. The 1980-2004 collage posters are $15 each. The small posters (3 ¾” x 5”) are $3 each or two for $4. Special prints of the 2008 Fleur de Lis Poster (11” x 17”), the 2016 Christmas in Natchitoches Poster (11” x 14.5”), and the 2019 Sacred Crossroads (11” x 14” reprint of the 1986 poster) are $20. The Natchitoches Christmas Festival Poster has been a tradition for 45 years. All of the original artwork can be viewed at the Natchitoches Arts Council office located at the Community Development Office, 420 Fourth Street or City Hall, 806 Second Street, Natchitoches, LA. For more information about the poster contest, please call Karen Terrell at (318) 792-7234.

Characteristics of True Leaders Versus a Bigot

- Transformational Leadership: King's ability to inspire and motivate people, articulate a clear vision for the future, and create a sense of shared purpose are key aspects of transformational leadership. He was able to connect with people on a deep level and encourage them to believe in the possibility of change.
- Servant Leadership: King's focus on serving others and prioritizing their well-being is a hallmark of servant leadership. He was known for his humility, empathy, and willingness to put the needs of others before his own.
- Entrepreneurial Leadership: King's ability to build alliances, cultivate partnerships, and connect with people from diverse backgrounds reflects the principles of entrepreneurial leadership. He understood the importance of working with others to achieve a common goal.
- Nonviolent Leadership: King's unwavering commitment to nonviolence was a defining feature of his leadership style. He drew inspiration from Mahatma Gandhi's philosophy of nonviolent resistance and applied it to the fight for civil rights.

Malcolm X

- Disciplined and Principled: Malcolm X lived with strict personal discipline, rooted in his NOI training and later his Sunni Muslim faith. He adhered to moral codes, avoiding alcohol and drugs, and emphasized self-reliance and community upliftment.
- Empathetic Leader: He connected deeply with marginalized Black communities, drawing from his own experiences with poverty, incarceration, and racism. His authenticity resonated, making him a voice for the alienated.
- Courageous and Uncompromising: He fearlessly confronted systemic racism and white supremacy, often at great personal risk. As a minister for the Nation of Islam (NOI), he boldly criticized American hypocrisy, earning both admiration and enmity.

Characteristics of True Community Leaders Versus a Bigot

Malcolm X

- Reflective and Self-Critical: He openly acknowledged past mistakes, such as his criminal youth or initial NOI dogmatism. His willingness to evolve publicly, even under scrutiny, reflected rare humility and introspection.
- Inspirational and Visionary: His emphasis on Black pride, self-determination, and global solidarity inspired generations. His autobiography, co-authored with Alex Haley, remains a timeless testament to personal transformation and resistance

Slang definition of bigot: a person who won't listen to anyone whose ideas or beliefs are different from his or her own. especially: one who regards or treats the members of a group (as a racial group) with hatred and intolerance.

- Mocking of Leadership: They openly mock Black leaders—politicians, activists, or cultural icons—accusing them of corruption, ineffectiveness, or exploiting the community for personal gain.
- Provocative and Confrontational: They use inflammatory language to shock or gain attention, often framing their critiques as “tough love” or “speaking truth.” This can include derogatory terms or stereotypes about Black culture, delivered through platforms like social media.
- Performative Authenticity: They emphasize their “realness” or insider perspective, using their age, background, or street credibility to legitimize their critiques. They might claim to speak for the “silent majority” of Black people frustrated with their community’s direction.
- Selective Focus: Their criticism often ignores positive contributions or resilience within the Black community, focusing instead on negative stereotypes or sensationalized issues. They may downplay systemic racism, attributing problems solely to individual or cultural failures.
- Older and Pessimistic: As an older figure, they may draw on personal experiences of hardship or disillusionment (e.g., growing up in tough environments or witnessing failed reforms) to justify their bitterness. This pessimism fuels a belief that the community is inherently flawed or resistant to change.
