To the Citizens of Caswell County
and to the Board of Commissioners:

It has been the honor of a lifetime, and a great blessing, to serve you on the Board of Commissioners over the last three and a half years. Together, we have accomplished so much-- especially for future generations. I am grateful to our county employees and administrative staff for your support, patience, wisdom, and for your service to the Citizens of Caswell County. Your kindness has sustained me throughout this journey of public service. I have full faith in the People of Caswell County and firmly believe, having been strengthened over the last few years, that our best days are ahead of us, and there is nothing that good heads prompted by good hearts cannot accomplish, together. These are challenging times, yes, but we shall overcome. Despite bringing my part in this journey together, to a close, I am at peace to know that I have offered you my all, and have been there as your voice and advocate during the good times and bad. My only wish is that I would have liked to serve you longer and continue to devote my all to the county of my forefathers and mothers, and the county that I have fallen in love with time and time again and call home. To everything there is a season-- as our faith teaches. This includes, a time to step aside. Our home deserves the best and brightest minds, the pure and noblest hearts, the strong and healthy, to bring her to our full potential. So it is time that I pass the torch. I wish you all Godspeed in all your future endeavors. You have my love, my support, and my prayers-- no matter what.

Effectively immediately, I hereby resign my office of Caswell County Commissioner At-Large. I pray our Heavenly Father will continue to bestow his best of blessings and uncompromising grace upon our great country, our beautiful state and our home-- our beloved, Caswell County.

Your Humble Servant and Fellow Citizen,

Andrew Sterling Carter
