RULES AND REGULATIONS
MEMBERS OF THE
GILMER COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY, INC

The members, as individuals and/or corporations, subscribe to the following rules and regulations and will conduct their affairs accordingly:

1. All potential members shall fill out an application and be interviewed and approved by one of the Board Members prior to becoming a member of GCHS.
2. All members shall pay their annual fees by March each year, or when they first join the Society.
3. All members Represent the Society in a manner consistent with the Articles of Incorporation and the By-Laws.
4. All members shall communicate in a positive manner the value of the Society and its contributions to the community.
5. All members shall be committed, without regard to personal interests, to a strong effective organization that serves the historical preservation needs of the community.
6. All members shall seek and use efficiency resources for the greater good of the organization and the community.
7. All members shall maintain a cooperative attitude with all other organization members and other factions of the community, thereby producing a progressive atmosphere and a successful program of historical preservation.
8. All members shall try to attend meetings regularly and participate in historical preservation planning and activities.
9. All members shall refrain from acting independently in the name of the Society without the consensus vote of a two-thirds majority of the Board.
10. All members shall disclose a situation in which there might be a conflict of interest and excuse oneself from the process or resign from the Society until such time that said issue has been addressed.
11. All members shall avoid political activities in an attempt to represent the Gilmer County Historical Society. However, members may run for office or campaign for candidates as private individuals, and, as such, are encouraged to vote for their candidates of choice.
