

DECLARATION FORM IV (SEE RULE 8)

1. Place of publication: The Pioneer Building, 11, Civil Lines, Near Raj Bhawan, Opp. Sanskriti Bhawan, Raipur-492007.
2. Periodicity of Publication: Daily
3. Printer's Name: Vijay Budhia
4. Publisher's Name: Vijay Budhia
5. Editor's Name: Chandran Mitra
6. Name and address of individuals who own the newspaper and bring more than 1% of the total capital: 1) DDI Indian Red Cross Building Society, New Delhi-110001, 2) Opinion Express Communication & Sanchari Holding Pvt. Ltd., H-35A, Sankh Farms, Lane W-10C, New Delhi-110062.

Table with 10 columns: S.No., Name of the Proprietor, Name of the Editor, Name of the Printer, Name of the Publisher, Name of the Proprietor, Name of the Editor, Name of the Printer, Name of the Publisher, Name of the Proprietor, Name of the Editor.

Sidhu insists on dialogue between India and Pak

PMs CHANDIDGARH
Raking another controversy amidst the volatile situation between India and Pakistan, Navjot Singh Sidhu on Thursday insisted to continue dialogue with the neighbouring nation, underlining that the solution to terror was peace — something that failed to go down well with his own party, Sidhu, in a statement released on his official letter-head titled "We have a choice."

prevailing security situation in the country, Sidhu beatified for peace as the sole solution to terror. "I stand by my deeply held principle that a community cannot be blamed for the actions of a few. A sentiment of Indian Air Force pilot Wing Commander Abhinandan Punjab Cabinet Minister Sidhu said that the goodwill gesture is a cup of joy for a billion people."
In his tweet later on, he said, "Every noble act makes a way for itself... your goodwill gesture is a cup of joy" for a billion people a nation, rejoice... I am overjoyed for his parents and loved ones."
Taking a line independent of his Congress party on the Quoting his political mentor, Sidhu said, "Our objective should be to firmly deal with terrorists and their sponsors, financiers and arms suppliers. At the same time, our doors should always be open for processes which would restore peace, development and progress to societies which have been devastated by terrorism over many generations."

Going all out to seek a dialogue between India and Pakistan, Sidhu said "Year has been among us these last few days an unwelcome guest".

CONGRESS SNIBBS SIDHU, THERE'S TIME TO TALK

Congress on Thursday snubbed Navjot Singh Sidhu's support for continuing Indo-Pakistan dialogue, saying that "there's a time to act and there's a time to talk".

Capt welcomes pilot's release; meets BSF personnel on border

Farler, Capt Amrinder also visited the 14th BSF Battalion Headquarters at Khamkaran, the bravehearters at which are stationed along the international border, and was briefed about the overall defence preparedness by IG BSF Mahipal Yadav. He was assured that the force was fully prepared to thwart any untoward incident from across the border.

The Chief Minister, on his arrival at Chhatraia village in Taran district, took stock of the situation and was briefed by top police and administrative brass regarding the prevailing situation and measures taken for the security of citizens.
The Chief Minister asked the civil and police administration to work in coordination to prevail upon the border residents not to leave their homes in panic but to jointly hold meetings of village panchayats and prominent local residents to instil a sense of confidence.

The Chief Minister, who shared lunch with them, urged one and all to guard against manufactured hysteria and not get waylaid by rumours. Punjab Government stands with them.
The Chief Minister also informed the people that he had already directed the state Chief Secretary and DGP to stay in close touch with the district and police administration of the six border districts — Taran, Amritsar, Ferozpur, Gurdaspur, Fazilka and Patna Sahib — and work with them on the contingency Plans.

Table with 10 columns: S.No., Name of the Proprietor, Name of the Editor, Name of the Printer, Name of the Publisher, Name of the Proprietor, Name of the Editor, Name of the Printer, Name of the Publisher, Name of the Proprietor, Name of the Editor.

Table with 10 columns: S.No., Name of the Proprietor, Name of the Editor, Name of the Printer, Name of the Publisher, Name of the Proprietor, Name of the Editor, Name of the Printer, Name of the Publisher, Name of the Proprietor, Name of the Editor.

Advertisement for Muncion Service Limited. Includes contact information for Raipur and Chandigarh offices, website URL, and a table with 3 columns: S.No., Particulars, Amount.