MY CODE OF ETHICS

My Commitment to You: I promise to be fully present during our time together. I will take time to center myself, clear my mind from any distractions so I can commit my time and attention completely to you and your reading. I promise to remain non-judgmental and open to receiving all messages that come through.

Your Commitment to Me: As a client please be fully present for the reading and not under the influence of drugs or alcohol. Take the time to consider your question or questions and the outcome you want before the reading. If you are having an in-person reading, you may be asked to join in a short meditation before beginning.

I will not do readings if a client is under the influence of drugs or alcohol during our time together.

Verbal or physical abuse will not be tolerated.

My Services: I am a spiritual and intuitive person. As a Tarot Advisor I know how Tarot has provided guidance and clarity in every area of my life and I want to help others find the same guidance and clarity. My readings start by focusing on the question or questions asked. I meditate to clear my mind of any distractions and connect to my intuition and Spirit (what I consider Universal Energy) to be receptive to whatever messages come through for the highest good of those involved.

Tarot readings can be truly enlightening when they are a collaborative experience. I love working with clients to develop questions for the Tarot that will provide the answers and actions needed for each individual situation. I always hope to facilitate strong connections, breakthroughs, and clarity.
