

Start thinking.....

What do I want to leave behind?

Legacy Project Ideas

- Personalized Letters or Cards
- A Letter Box filled with letters to be opened on the milestones in your loved one's lives. See The Letter Box: A Story of Enduring Love
- Memory Box: Loved ones write a memory when they come to visit and place it in the box. It is then made into a memory book. It can include photos
- Record a video message for loved ones or to be played at the memorial service
- Choose personal gifts from possessions. Add a card and wrap them. To be opened after death.
- Make a photo album of best life memories.
- Sew a quilt from favorite old clothes and/or photos
- Compile a recipe book. Include photos, notes, memories, celebrations
- Design a book or calendar with favorite quotes & life lessons
- Decorate a picture frame designed with favorite words written in your handwriting
- Create a scroll or banner to be displayed at memorial or to cover casket with notes from loved ones, meaningful words, or pictures
- Have a park bench placed in a local favorite spot in your honor
- Donate books to your local library in your name
- Design wallet cards or magnets. Write a message in handwriting, include a photo, favorite quote
- Write your own obituary
- Write a poem or song and perform it aloud to family on a recording
- Plant a tree or a garden
- Donate to a favorite cause
- Have a blanket or stuffed animal made from old shirts
- Use a genealogy program to create a family tree and print it for family members
