What Guests Are Saying About Our Soulful Experiences

Monique D., Past Guest: "Growing up as a little girl, I was a jazz and tap dancer and remember our dance teacher celebrating Josephine Baker especially during Black History Month. Being in the same locations where she performed was an amazing experience for me."

Elaine T., Past Guest: "There's so much history as African Americans that we do not know, so for me to come to France and be immersed into the culture and learn about what the impact has been, it's been very moving to hear the different stories, the experience, the culture. I am very much committed in terms of AmaWaterways."

Geisha C., Travel Advisor: "I thought it was amazing. I believe it's one of the best things that needed to come forward because it's needed for the Black community to experience different cultures in Europe and know the Black history. The experiences, the welcoming that we had as a group, I'm not going to forget that ever."

Linda R., Past Guest: "I really like the idea that the company is committed to supporting African Americans. I had a wonderful time and I'm glad I did it. If I'm going to go on another cruise, it'll be Ama."
