As we follow the city's main thoroughfare, Adderley Street, we will see St.

George's Cathedral, the Anglican Diocese of Nobel Peace Laureate Archbishop Desmond Tutu.

We will pass the Company Gardens and the Malay Quarter which is also known as the Bo-Kaap which means 'Above Cape' because of its location up against the slopes of Table Mountain.

In the early 18th century, thousands of slaves from Java, Ceylon, and other Far Eastern regions were brought to Cape Town.

After slavery was abolished, their descendants, known as the Cape Malays, settled here.
