Thank you for choosing Copper Kettle Ranch, LLC, to assist you with boarding, training, and/or lessons. This Agreement is made between Copper Kettle Ranch, LLC, and Customer named above.

1. Fees: Attached to this letter are our schedule of fees that describe our policies and procedures for billing our customers. Our fees are adjusted from time to time to reflect increased costs or to accommodate inflationary cost increases affecting our business. The adjusted rates will apply to all services performed thereafter by mailing you a copy of the increased fee schedule. In addition to our fees, we will expect payment for disbursements and other charges. Each month we will furnish you with one or more statements describing our services rendered and separately showing disbursements and other charges. Due to the nature of showing, there often is an unavoidable delay in reporting disbursements and other charges, and therefore not all disbursements and charges may be billed at the same time as the related services. In addition, our employees, contractors, and subcontractors may invoice you separately for their services provided under the terms of this Agreement and schedule of fees. We will expect your invoices to be paid monthly as they are billed to you. A finance charge of 1-1/2 percent per month, or 18 percent a year, compounded monthly, is assessed for accounts not paid within 15 days. If your account is turned over for collection because of nonpayment of fees and costs when due, you will be responsible for all costs of collection, including Copper Kettle Ranch, LLC, reasonable attorney fees and costs.
2. Right of Lien: Copper Kettle Ranch, LLC, has the right of an agister's lien as set forth by the Colorado Revised Statutes for the amount due for board and additional services and shall have the right, without process of law, to retain your horse(s) until the indebtedness is satisfactorily paid in full, together with any fees, costs and/or attorney's fees.
3. If Boarding, Care of Horses: Supplements and vitamins, if required, are to be supplied by the Customer or, if purchased by Copper Kettle Ranch, LLC, will be billed to Customer or paid in advance by Customer, as Copper Kettle Ranch, LLC, deems appropriate. Stabling assignments, turn-out times, and paddocks used, will be decided by Copper Kettle Ranch, LLC. Copper Kettle Ranch, LLC, agrees to assist the customer in establishing a program of hoof care and deworming consistent with recognized standards, which will billed to Customer or paid in advance by the Customer, as Copper Kettle Ranch, LLC, deems appropriate. Copper Kettle Ranch, LLC, has the permission of Customer to request a veterinary visit or request the services of a farrier. This will be done at Customer's expense. In an emergency, Copper Kettle Ranch, LLC, will make every effort to reach Customer. Any decisions made by Copper Kettle Ranch, LLC, in the absence of Customer, will be made in the best interests of the horse. Any veterinary charges are the responsibility of Customer, who will be billed directly by the veterinary clinic for any charges, or if Copper Kettle Ranch, LLC, has paid the same will be billed to Customer.

4. Termination: As boarding charges are incurred the first day of each month in advance for the entire month, written notice of at least 30 days prior to the first of the month (i.e., notice on April 15 will be effective May 30) shall be submitted to Copper Kettle Ranch, LLC, will be required to terminate any boarding agreement. Any shorter notice will result in boarding charges for the month of the notice and the following month. Copper Kettle Ranch, LLC, reserves the right to terminate any boarding agreement with thirty day's notice to Customer.
5. Damages: Customer is financially responsible for any and all damages caused by their horses to the stable, to the property, or to Copper Kettle Ranch, LLC, tack and equipment.
