

Investing in your future's endeavors!

Thank you for your interest in Our Daily Bread's Scholarship Program.

Scholarship requirement is applicant must be a prior recipient of Our Daily Bread's Program. Which means you participated in the following programs: Mentoring, Community Volunteering, Court-Order Community Service, Job Training/Resume Writing, or Mommy & Baby Prenatal Care/Childcare Coordinator Services. You also need to be currently enrolled in college or a technical school and has completed two full semesters (one year).

Our Daily Bread's desire is to invest in your education with a $500.00 Scholarship Grant for your educational needs. You may use this scholarship toward student related expenses such as student fees related to tuition, books, housing, food, clothing, and etc.

Scholarship Application opens on November 9th
Part 1: Please complete the Scholarship Application Form. Submit this application along with following information:
1-Two Professional Letters of Recommendations (must be on company's letterhead)
2-Personal Letters of Recommendations will not be accepted
3-A copy of your currents Semester's Transcript
4-A signed letter from college or technical letter to solidify that your status
5- Submit all documents to: info@ourdailybreadmil.org by December 1st

Applications will be reviewed for the upcoming Scholarship Program. If you are late or missing documents, your application will be rejected immediately. Thank you for your interest!

Part 2: 850 Words Essay
Essay topic will be provided on December 8th
Due Essay: January 5th