I will have 6 small paintings in the Antioch Fine Arts Foundation's Small Works show at 896 Main Street, Antioch, IL.

The show runs through Jan. 26, 2025

All are invited to browse the impressive display of regional artwork, enjoy some light refreshment and chat with the exhibiting artists.

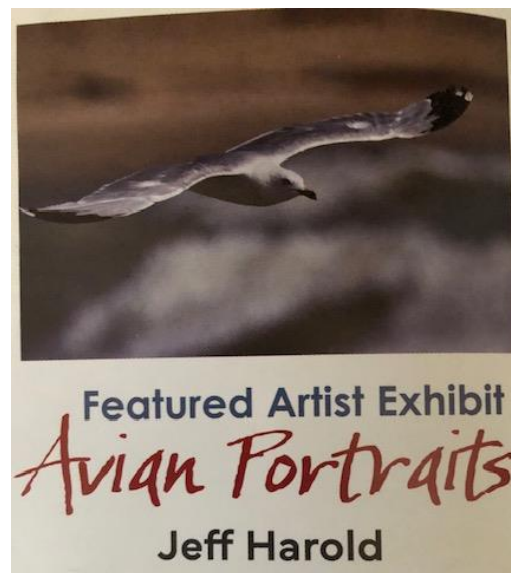

Questions: Contact Aruna at arunans@hotmail.com

Jeff Harold

I am the featured artist at the Lake Villa District Library's (LVDL) exhibit.

Explore 'Avian Portraits', birds native to Lake County, in the library lobby.

The exhibit will continue until Jan. 2025.

Tobi Abrams

I have been invited to show a large sample of my artwork at the Prospect Heights Library in Prospect Heights, IL. I have developed a unique technique for creating textures in my paintings, and would love for you to attend.

The show opened Dec. 7.

The library is located on Camp McDonald Rd., just west of Hwy 83 or Elmhurst.

This is a great way to purchase holiday gifts for your family or friends.

Ernest Schweit

I was happy to open my email the other day and find a letter stating that my photograph, “The Way,” had been accepted to the upcoming show, “In View, 2025,” the member and faculty show at the Art Center of Highland Park in January. I’m honored to be showing my work in this wonderful venue.

Exhibition opening: Dec. 20

Opening reception: 5:30 to 8 pm, Jan. 10.

Location: 1957 Sheridan Road, Highland Park.

“The Way” is a print reproduced on specially treated aluminum that I made during an August hike through Independence Grove in Libertyville.

“In View, 2025” is co-curated by Executive Director James Lynch and Gallery Manager Caleb Smith and will feature nearly 100 works in a variety of media.

I hope to see you all there!

Please check out my website for images of my latest photography, and for links to my blog, Instagram, and Facebook.
