Membership Dues for 2025-2026

When Are Membership Dues Due?

LCAL normally requires that dues and membership forms for renewing members are collected at the first in-person member meeting of our art league year, which is Sept. However, because we will be holding our Fall Membership Show in Sept., our next in-person meeting of the 2025-2026 year won't take place until Oct. Therefore, membership dues will be due before Oct. 1st.

Due Dates for Payment of Dues

1. For those participating in the Fall Membership Show (see page 2 for show details), dues MUST BE PAID IN FULL BEFORE OR ON THE SHOW'S ART DROP-OFF DATE of Sept. 2, 10 am-1 pm.
2. For those not entering the Fall Membership Show:
  - Pay your dues by Oct. 1, or
  - Pay in person at the show's critique at the Volo Bog on Sept. 28. Someone will be available to take your completed membership form and check or money order at that time.

Payment Options for Dues: Zelle, Check, Money Order

This year, we have added a new electronic payment option (Zelle) to pay your dues. This option is faster and simpler than paying by check or money order. However, you are welcome to still pay by check or money order if you wish.

Please note that we can no longer accept cash.

Paying with Zelle

If you would like to pay with Zelle, but do not have it set up with your bank, please visit the Zelle website, where you can "See if your bank offers Zelle" and then select your bank from the list. You will then "Continue to your bank" to follow the instructions that are specific to your bank. If you still have questions, contact your bank for assistance.

Once you are prepared to pay with Zelle, email Louise Villegas, Membership Director, at lou999@comcast.net and she can provide payment instructions.

Paying by Check or Money Order

Make your check or money order out to Lake County Art League and mail it to Lake County Art League, P.O. Box #5, Gurnee, IL 60031.

Membership forms must accompany payment of dues!

All returning members must submit a completed form with their payment. There are two ways to submit your renewal:

- The ONLINE FORM
- The downloadable member form at the bottom of the LCAL website's Membership and Forms page.

You do not have to pay by Zelle to use the online form.

Questions? Contact Deb Edmunds at edmundsdl@gmail.com

Members and Membership Opportunities

Announcement Regarding Anne Anderson, Artist and Longtime Member of the LCAL

It is with great sadness that we have come to learn of the passing of a long-time member of the Lake County Art League, Anne Anderson.

She passed away on July 11th.

Anne was a very talented botanical artist working in watercolors. She knew many of our members.

Her son, Tom, informed the art league that there will be no service or memorial.

Volunteers Needed and Appreciated!

Keep the LCAL healthy and the art community growing for another 90 years!

- Support for Workshops and Shows

- We need help with organizing, checking in art, refreshment set-up and clean-up, runners to help bring art to critique artists, and hanging art (sometimes).
- We still need help with the 2025 Fall Membership Show at the Volo Bog in Sept. (see page 2).

Art Notes, by Ernest Schweit

“There’s No Reason Not to Show Your Work!”

It was a special thrill when I walked in the Robert T. Wright Gallery and saw 30 of my images illuminated by gallery lights and displayed on perfectly white walls. It was a bit overwhelming, but very satisfying.

The exhibit, “Respite,” was the largest public showing of my photography ever. But it was not my first; far from it. I’ve been showing my photography since 2002 in galleries, at juried art fairs, one-man shows, and group exhibits. I’ve learned that showing your work, no matter the venue, can be important to your development as an artist.

Here are some reasons to show your work:

- Gives you and your work an extra purpose. Although the drive to create is strong in most artists, working towards an exhibition can give us extra motivation. I had to create 7 new prints for “Respite,” and to be honest, I’m not sure otherwise they’d ever have gone beyond digital files shown on social media.
- A great way to connect with potential buyers. I’ve found that sales come more quickly from folks you already know rather than from casual onlookers. Engage with the onlookers at your show, and before you explain your work, listen closely to what they say.
- Receive valuable feedback from other artists or the viewing public. It can give your work a new direction or push you to do more. We artists are passionate about what we do and that makes it hard to be objective about it. Feedback can give us a different take on it.

- Forces you to look at your work dispassionately and objectively, and less like the artist who created it. This skill can come in handy when submitting work to a juried show. For example, if you know that the juror leans towards the abstract rather than the literal, it can help you decide which work to submit.
- A good way to network with other artists. And that could lead to info on other shows, useful feedback or new techniques for your work. Always carry business cards and ask for cards from other artists you meet. Those who are hip to the importance of networking will be happy you asked.
- A great way to get organized in your art practice. Most artists are supposedly right-brain thinkers: intuitive and creative. Left-brain thinkers are more organized and logical. I’ve met precious few artists who are both. A deadline to submit work to a show provides the structure a right-brained artist needs to get organized and make that submission happens.
- A good way to meet other gallery owners or managers who might be planning their own shows. If they know you and are familiar with your work, that could lead to other exhibit opportunities.

So, if you are struggling with the notion of showing your work; get over it and just go for it! You never know where it can lead!
